LOYD GEORGE SAYS PAY U. S.; DEFIES LABOR

Points to Peril of Radical Rule.

BY JOHN STEELE.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright, 1922, By The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, Oct. 25.—(By Tribune Wire.)—David Lloyd George set up two big issues today in his fight for return to power. The former prime minister took an outspoken stand against the radical demands of the Labor party, including a special levy on big fortunes. He made his past and proposed future friendly relations with the United States the vehicle of an appeal to the English people for their votes in the forthcoming election. He declared England must pay her full debt in the United States.

Tomorrow Andrew Bonar Law, the new prime minister, will deliver a speech at Glasgow announcing the Conservative party's platform, on which he will seek to retain his office.

With all cards then laid on the table, the United Kingdom promises to be the scene of one of the most interesting political elections of recent times.

King Receives New Ministers.
King George today received the outgoing cabinet ministers who surrendered their seals of office and he later received the new ministers to whom he handed the seals. By the ceremony the new government was installed and most of the ministers immediately took over their departments.

The new cabinet is regarded by politicians here as a makeshift and likely to undergo drastic changes if Mr. Bonar Law is returned to power as the general election.

Respectable Nonentities.
It is asserted here that the cabinet is composed of respectable nonentities with a preponderance of peers. Neutral observers say that so far only two have proved their worth. They are Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the exchequer, and Lord Cave, lord chancellor.

Lord Salisbury's only claim to office is that he is head of the great house of Cecil and is the son of a famous minister. Lord Derby is the head of the famous Stanley family and is a power in the north of England because of his property interests there. The Duke of Devonshire is the head of the Cavendish family and has been viceroy to Canada. Viscount Peel is a good party man.

Lord Curzon is the new cabinet's secretary and he is promoted undersecretary who is resigning the role of their revolt against Mr. Lloyd George.

Lloyd George Making Gains.
Mr. Lloyd George and his friends are receiving daily better reports from the country and the former prime minister is getting a great popular welcome everywhere he goes.

His speech today at the gathering of the National Liberal party at the Hotel Victoria was the occasion for a great outburst of enthusiasm. The speech itself was a restrained and dignified statement of his position, although he could not resist the temptation to poke some gentle fun at some of his late colleagues, such as Lord Curzon, who he declared had never been considered as a bulwark against Lloyd George or against anything else.

He declared his object now was to secure the return to parliament of the party or group which would keep the government safe and sound and to make the United States safe through its post-war trouble. He also announced that he would support any measure that served the interests of the country.

Mr. Lloyd George said: "I do not stand for any policy which says that Great Britain must pay all her debts but must not get anything from France or any other country."

"I am for the league of nations. I am in favor of all countries of Europe being united as its members. I am in favor of making every reasonable attempt to induce the United States to associate itself with that league body. I still think that unless we can get the United States in the league will be crippled."

Must Work with America.
Working with the United States must be one of the chief purposes of the government. There is more in common between these two nations than between any other lands. Our interests approximate theirs in a way that makes it impossible for the two to be at odds. If these two nations are at odds, the world is at odds.

"OUR POLICY OF ISOLATION"

After sending millions of American troops to France to save the allies from defeat—

—and sending thousands of American soldiers to Archangel and Siberia to fight a nation with whom we were not at war and for purposes somewhat obscure—

—and spending hundreds of millions on wooden ships that would be useless to us after the war—

MORON'S ATTACKS STIR KENSINGTON; MAN HUNT STARTS

Angry citizens of the Kensington district, stirred by repeated brutal attacks on assault on unprotected women in that section of the city, last night joined the police in hunting down the assailant.

Four attempts at assault have been made in this district within the last two weeks, all by a youth who is described by his intended victims as being about 20 years old, of slender build and wearing a gray sweater and a gray cap.

On her way home from work Tuesday night, Miss Anna Borst, 19 years old, daughter of Policeman Jacob Borst of 11844 South La Salle street, was attacked by a youth at Perry avenue and East 118th street. In her struggle to free herself, Miss Borst bit her attacker and screamed so loudly that he became alarmed and fled. During the struggle he struck her in the face several times. Miss Borst's father organized a search party among his neighbors, but failed to find her assailant.

Simultaneously with the organization of the police into extra details came the report that Mrs. Eva Draper of 12155 Parnell avenue had been attacked at West 125th street and Eggleston avenue.

Its approval by the new British cabinet is accepted as a foregone conclusion. No changes that could possibly be offensive to the English government were made in the draft which was approved last June by the Lloyd George cabinet. And in addition the draft as amended by parliament was seen Tuesday by representatives of Prime Minister Bonar Law, and they offered no objections.

Today the proceedings resulted in alterations which were proposed verbally, and they were inconsequential. The most important of them, offered by President Cosgrave, required ministers and members of the executive council to be appointed by representatives of the crown on the nomination of a committee of parliament. But parliament alone possesses the power of removal.

Members of First Senate.
Members of the first senate shall be nominated by the president of the executive council. On Mr. Cosgrave's motion parliament made provisions that in making the nominations the president shall consult with chambers of commerce, the college of physicians, the college of surgeons, the benchers of the Honorable Society of Kings Inn, the Incorporated Law society, and county councils.

(Copyright, 1922, By The Chicago Tribune.)

DUBLIN, Oct. 25.—Eamon de Valera has returned to Dublin. He is suffering so severely from a nervous disorder that a priest is in constant attendance on him in the private hospital where he is now.

The military are not molesting him, realizing that he is no longer an important figure among those in armed opposition to the government.

Constitution Is Adopted.
The constitution of the Free State was finally adopted today by the provisional parliament. It will be taken to London shortly where the British cabinet after scrutinizing it will submit it to the Westminster parliament.

Lake Forest Home Pierced by Four Shells

cision holding that Gov. Small did not have the right to pardon the defendant, requested that such action be taken, he deemed it advisable that the "said cause should be further considered by the court."

The whole matter thus remains in statu quo until the Supreme court at the December term passes upon the motion for a rehearing.

Trustee Stanislaus Klarkowski and former Trustee James E. Remy have each paid a fine of $100 and served one day in jail. Mrs. Lulu Snodgrass has paid a fine of $500 and Dr. Sadio Bay Adair and Mrs. Frances E. Thornton, two other trustees, have paid $150 fines.

They will not be reimbursed pending a rehearing by the Supreme court and their fines will be remitted then only if the former decision is reversed.

Dr. Klarkowski took Mr. Hanson a pack of cards yesterday and Mr. Coath presented him with a box of cigars and a Bible on the 25th of which was written, "Believe everything you read in this, but don't take Bither's word for a damned thing."

HANSON A PHILOSOPHER

In the Chicago jail twenty years behind the times, as Amos W. Butler, Indiana expert on penal institutions, recently charged? If it is, then Trustee Hanson must be a delinquent old-fashioned. For Mr. Hanson likes the jail so well that he yesterday wrote a letter to Deputy Sheriff Laubenhimer in which he said:

"I wish to state that I will remain here to serve out my sentence of three days."

The nice thing about jail, according to Mr. Hanson, is that it gets nicer every minute.

"The beginning was the worst," he said. "That inspection, the search, and being assigned to a cell. But after the first night you look around and try to make the best of things."

Man with a "Touch" on Job.

After Mr. Hanson started to "look around" yesterday morning he became the center of attraction. A bi-racial prisoner told his tale of woe, a con man exchanged confidences. Another one tried to borrow $100. And Johnnie E. Edgeworth, the 31-year-old Romeo, cornered Mr. Hanson and told him tales of the civil war and of the gold rush.

But there are few points about the jail that even the optimistic Mr. Hanson thinks should be changed. The jail should be larger. There should be more fresh air and fewer drafts. The shower baths should be so dreadfully public.

It would be nice if—if the beds were less—or—less inmate.

A shave once every three days does a lot toward making all men equal. Mr. Hanson was on his second day yesterday.

First Visit to Jail.

This is the first time that Mr. Hanson ever visited any jail. Therefore he made it difficult to state positively whether or not Mr. Butler was correct when in his recent lecture to Chicago club women on "Have You Ever Been in Jail," he declared that the Chicago jail was out of date by at least twenty years.

"And I hope I'll never be in jail again," said Mr. Hanson, fervently. "It would be much harder to repeat because you would know what was coming."

FALL OF MONEY TO NEW DEPTHS SHAKES EUROPE

France Has Hope of a Trade Revival Ahead.

New York, Oct. 25.—French, Belgian and Italian exchange rates dropped to their lowest prices of the year today. French francs dropped 16 1/2 points to 681 cents; Belgian francs yielded 14 points to 825 cents and Italian lire sold off 2 1/2 points to 3.29 1/2 cents.

The par value of each of the allied continental currencies is the franc.

Several reasons were assigned for the further depreciation. Speculation, selling has been influenced by the huge French government deficit and the latest developments in the German economic crisis which has given rise to reports of a possible default in reparations payments. Cable dispatches today reported that the British were buying dollars to pay the interest on their debt to the United States with French currency, which also would have a tendency to depress the Paris rate.

German marks hovered slightly above their low record of date, 2 1/8 cents a hundred.

French Explain Sag.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—(By the Associated Press.) The buying of dollars by British banks with French francs in their possession is said by French financiers to be the principal cause of the present weakness of the franc.

"The British banks and the British treasury, which have long been accumulating French francs, have used them, as was their right to do, to buy the dollars they needed, instead of using pounds," he continued. "The consequence was that the payment of the big sum of interest to the United States has had no bad effect on the pound. On the contrary, British exchange profited by the subsequent depreciation of the franc."

The British banks, having disposed of their francs, cannot repeat such an operation easily again, it was pointed out. There are other factors in the situation which also are regarded as temporary, such as the large purchases of wool and cotton in the United States by French manufacturers.

"They are not alone temporary, but they are immensely encouraging," said the head of the economic research department of a leading French bank. "They show signs of revival of French industry. The importations of such raw material means the exportation of the manufactured product."

Copper from U. S.

"It has been reported in France recently that this country has brought large quantities of copper in the United States. While the copper came from the United States, it was the property of Germans, who have contracted for over 120,000,000 pounds of

ESCAPES LAWSUIT

JACKIE SAUNDERS.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 25.—An action asking $50,000 damages from Jackie Saunders-Horkheimer, motion picture actress, for alleged alienation of the affections of J. Ward Cohen, brought by the latter's wife, Mrs. Juanita Cohen, was dismissed in the Superior court here today. It was initiated a settlement had been effected out of court, but, if so, the terms were not disclosed.

a credit operation. The value of such a large quantity at the present rate of exchange is said to be worth more than 100,000,000 paper marks."

The French iron and steel industry, according to information gathered by this research head, now is the slowest of all French industries, but is showing signs of a rapid recovery.

"Speculation has had little to do with the present movement," said an important banker today. "Even the situation in Germany had more to do with it than speculation. The tribulations of the debtor are always an embarrassment to the principal creditor. If we could count on the payment of even part of those sums which are owed us by Germany the effect on our exchange would be considerable."

Reject Austrian Proposals.

VIENNA, Oct. 25.—After an examination of Chancellor Seipel's financial program the league of nations' control committee caused the greatest surprise by rejecting it. The controllers held that Austria's consumption of imports could not be stopped. They announced that the Socialists' demands for a forced loan from the capitalists was desirable, and they recommended that parliament be adjourned thereafter.

POLITICIANS SEEN RUSHING WORLD INTO BANKRUPTCY

Paish Says U. S. Must Take Foreign Goods.

New York, Oct. 25.—Insistence by the people of all nations that statesmen change their political and economic policies is the only means of averting an approaching world catastrophe, Sir George Paish, English economist and former adviser to the British treasury, said tonight in an address prepared for the 13th annual convention of the American Manufacturers' Export Association.

"The statesmen of all nations," he declared, "are engaged in a common effort to prevent the nations from meeting their obligations to each other and thus reducing the whole world to bankruptcy. Already the policy of the statesmen of Europe is fast bringing the strongest nations to ruin and before long the statesmen of the other nations, if permitted to do so, will bring their countries into a similar condition."

Asks Change of Policy.

"It is therefore of the greatest possible moment that the business men and peoples of all nations should seek to understand and to realize the disastrous consequences that must ensue from the present policies of those responsible for national and international affairs and should insist upon such changes of policy that will avert the catastrophe towards which the entire world is now moving, with ever increasing rapidity."

Sir George charged that the United States was contributing to the general economic chaos by its new tariff law and by refusing to accept payment for obligations in any medium except gold. Declaring that he was not criticizing the United States which, he said, had done during the war "and until recently" everything the civilized nations could expect of her, he said:

Can't Refuse Goods.

"A creditor cannot refuse to take payment of its debts in the goods or services and therefore the endeavor of the American government to prevent the import of goods and produce is an action which I am convinced neither they nor the American people have fully considered."

Sir George said that the man responsible for the settlement of international financial and economic problems had bought their tasks and that it was up to the business men of the world to study the problems for themselves.

The present situation is complicated, he said, by the disappearance of the Russian market and the practical disappearance of Germany as a factor in reconstruction because of her enormous reparations debt.

"In the debtor nations," Sir George said, "I do not include Great Britain. Great Britain is still the greatest creditor nation of the world."

Pre-War Securities.

"The suggestion has been made with regard to Great Britain, which owes to the United States government a debt of about a thousand millions sterling, that payment should be made in the present foreign investments of Great Britain, not interrelated securities, but in pre-war securities."

"This could be done. Great Britain could give to the United States in payment of her debt a thousand millions sterling of Canadian, Argentine, Australian, Indian, South African, or other securities, and the debt could be paid off."

"But this would not solve the problem. It would definitely deliver Great Britain from its obligations, but it would not make any essential change in the situation."

"America does not need to purchase the products of the countries in which Great Britain placed so much of her pre-war savings, any more than she needs the produce of Great Britain; indeed, she needs them less."

"It is clear that whatever method is adopted of repaying the debt of Great Britain to America, the difficulties will remain until America is willing to accept payment either in goods or services for the interest and principal due."

"It is not essential that America should buy British goods. It is, however, essential that she should buy the products of some nation; it may be rubber, or tea, or wool, or gold, or silver, or tin, or something that she requires, the purchase of which would give the seller of the goods the power to buy the goods which Great Britain would need to sell in order to make payment of the same due to America."

CANADIANS WIN SECOND FISH RACE OF THRILL

Yanks Avert Collision Visiting Sailor Hunt

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 25.—(Associated Press.)—This was the day, a Hispanic victory under conditions more nearly approaching fishermen's weather, in the annual series for the fishing championship of the North Atlantic. The Henry Ford of Gloucester, a 40-mile test was the eastern of the Canadian champion.

The result brought the Gloucester fishing holder of the Halifax cup, to even terms with the American challenger. Each has a win in the two necessary for possession first race, while mooted still, stands no contest. The deciding scheduled for tomorrow.

From the start, in which collision between the racing schooners was only by the willingness of Clayton Morrisey of the Ford to the rules of the road at sea, to him the right of way, to the last in which a man at the masthead big Lunsenberger was injured, a race of thrills.

One Man Goes to Hospital.

Earnest Hiltz of the Gloucester became snarled in a stayall he hung suspended by the left several minutes after a tack of the Ford, and had to be cut. The stayall then went winging. Hiltz was taken to a hospital. The men of the Ford had a hustling to do when the Ford under way they discovered the bolt ropes on the forestall were severed in three places. When the weakened leech scalloped spilled the wind, but, lacking sails and thread, the fishermen straggled the edge with sails and made good job of it.

The race was called in light to grade air with only a bit of a for short spella. A race that the scale from light air at the a booming 20 knot speed, a wind was a smolder southwester on windward leg. The windward gave the Gloucester the lead of one-half minutes that was hers to finish.

How They Sized Up.

Through the two reaches on the erter mile leg the Henry Ford faster, three minutes 4 seconds on the broad reach, 22 seconds on the close haul. In the five starting leg the Gloucester gained turn six seconds in the lead, as the dead muddling beat on the Gloucester picked up three minutes second, virtually the equivalent loss on broad reaching.

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS PAY U. S.; DEFIES LABOR

would work together it would be the surest guarantee for a just peace and a just peace is the only lasting peace."

He declared reparations which Germany cannot pay should not be imposed, but he insisted the former enemy must be made to pay to her full capacity.

He declared he favored a renewal of relations with Russia.

He accepted the challenge of the Labor party with these words:

"Ruthless warfare has been declared on us by labor. In self-defense we must fight the Socialistic party. The principles advocated by the extreme section of the Labor party strike at the roots of national prosperity."

Labor Party Issues Manifesto.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—[By the Associated Press.]—A manifesto of the Labor party issued this evening advocated removal of the burden of the national debt through the creation of a "war debt redemption fund by a special graduated levy on fortunes exceeding £5,000."

It further declares for the revision of the peace treaty and German reparations, for an international conference to arrange the freedom of the straits, for independence in Egypt and self-government in India. The manifesto says:

"Labor's program is the best bulwark against a violent upheaval and class war."

"A democratic government can be made effective in this country without bloodshed and violence. The policy of the Labor party is to bring about a more equitable distribution of the nation's wealth by constitutional means. This is neither bolshevism nor communism but common sense justice."

Would Revise Peace Treaties.

The Conservative government, the manifesto declares, was formed to carry out a policy of naked reaction; labor is appealing to the men and women of the country on a policy of international peace and national reconstruction.

"Revision of the peace treaties, which caused greater international wrongs than they removed, is the first step to peace," it continues. "German reparations must be brought within Germany's capacity to pay. Turkey's relations with Europe and the freedom of the straits can only be dealt with in an international conference by the representatives of all the countries concerned."

Labor is working for an all inclusive league of nations with powers to deal with international disputes by methods of judicial arbitration and conciliation. Through the league of nations an agreement can be reached for the limitation of armaments, with general disarmament as the goal.

Would Tax Big Fortunes.

Labor recognizes the urgent need of lifting from trade and industry the deadweight burden of the national debt; it therefore proposes the creation of a war debt redemption fund by a special graduated levy on fortunes exceeding £5,000. Labor will not penalize thrift, but will require some restitution

SOVIETS ORDER U. S. MARINES OUT OF VLADIVOSTOK

BY RODERICK MATHESON.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

(Copyright, 1922, By The Chicago Tribune.)

TOKIO, Oct. 25.—The cessation of telegraphic communication with Vladivostok due to a strike of Russian operators is leading to much unrest as to what is happening in that city. Before the wires were silenced special dispatches to the Nichi-Nichi reported a massacre of members of the wealthy intelligentsia at Nikolai by supporters of the Chita government.

The White government at Vladivostok has fled and the Pinks are in authority, but they do not possess much power. Eleven Japanese vessels are taking practically the entire Japanese population from Vladivostok as outbreaks by hostile Korean and Russian bandits are feared. Thousands of Russian Whites are leaving.

The last Japanese are embarking on transports today, sailing tomorrow for Japan. The warship Nishin will remain in the harbor.

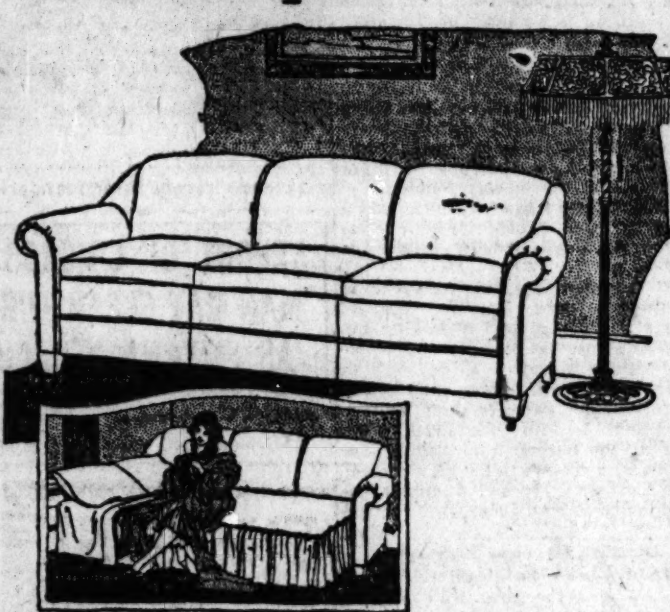

A special dispatch from Changchun to the Mainichi quotes Gen. Darin, commander in chief of the Chita army, as ordering the British and American marines to leave Vladivostok and all foreign warships to leave the harbor. He demands the surrender of the Chita government of all Russian vessels interned in foreign ports.

A dispatch from Vladivostok dated Oct. 22 states that the strike is paralyzing the transportation and lighting systems and that all stores are closing.

HENRICI'S

Americans think less and care less about food than do any other people of comparable civilization—excepting possibly the Scotch and the Irish.

The frugal New Englander, the gaunt plainsman and the sinewy mountaineer, of song and story, were all as lean as Cassius.

Incidentally, song and story, as well as the other branches of the fine arts, have flourished to most glorious development in those lands in which excellence of food was most esteemed.

Were Americans more interested in the subject of food there would be in America less food of doubtful quality, less digestive disorder, more restaurants of genuine merit—and greater contentment throughout the country.

Here and there in all arts, all crafts, all professions and all fields of commerce, there are men working, sincerely, toward the single objective of perfection in accomplishment.

Perfection is not of this life, but a reasonable approach to it is. At Henrici's the goal is still sufficiently distant to be a matter of lively concern and daily unremitting effort.

The man who can, by practicable suggestion, assist in raising still higher the quality of food served at Henrici's, will find his counsels well requited.

Why not Henrici's for luncheon today?

ing men. He printed a story reflecting on the character of Mayor Harry M. Schriver. Schriver had him arrested and in the presence of a policeman beat Looney nearly to death. Three innocent boys were killed in riots that followed this Looney-Schriver battle.

New Field with Prohibition.
Looney became wealthy and bought a 20,000 acre ranch in New Mexico. He left Rock Island several years ago, but about three years ago returned and formed a new political alliance with Schriver, who had been elected mayor again. The old enemies were in the same camp. John Scott, who as district attorney had Looney indicted for grafting and was forced to throw the cases out of court, was also in the new lineup. Looney seemed to dominate. He has escaped death many times. His shop has been bombed. Once he was on the floor with a man pressing a pistol into his throat, but the pistol jammed.

Prohibition, or rather the lack of it, offered a new field for Mr. Looney's talents under his new alignment. His paper printed a list of soft-drink card advertisements. These places were not raided. Looney called loudly for reform. He complained of street walkers. Chief of Police Thomas Cox said he did not know of any. Looney went out with a policeman and brought the women in. At the same time there was a line of houses along Third avenue where women snatched openly at men's hats as they passed. It was a complex situation. Some were raided, others were not.

Government Takes a Hand.
The Argus decided things were getting too strong and began to campaign for a clean city.

The police board fired the chief. The mayor fired the board. The acting chief, William Fitzsimmons, went in and made wholesale raids. He closed the town.

The federal government sent into Rock Island two investigators from Col. L. G. Nutt's office in Chicago. One of these men, Goss, got the confidence of Bill Gabel. He turned over to Goss checks showing whom he had paid for liquor. As soon as it was known that Gabel had squealed he was killed. Six men were in the killing. He was shot from a car.

No evidence enough to identify has been obtained.
Who killed Bill Gabel to prevent his exposures is one of the stock questions of the investigation.

Looney by this time had entirely supplanted Billburg as the leader of that faction. He appeared in court for bootleggers. His paper attacked men with the old vigor. He was recognized as the power that controlled the police.

Killings Increase.
Public sentiment began to turn against him strongly. His enemies thought they could kill him and walk under waving palms to his funeral.

He entered politics by attack-

Less Lawless Parking

Fire hydrants, alley fire escapes and loading zones were conspicuously free of parked cars yesterday. Official attention was focused on the luckless driver who forgot his thirty minute deadline in the loop or backed into some sanctuary of the downtown traffic zone. It was an off day for parking violations everywhere—except about the city hall and along Michigan avenue.

Directly in front of the La Salle street entrance to the city hall, at the point where motorcycle coppers foregather, there appeared a double line of parked cars. Traffic detoured to the car tracks and missed the intersections. A diffident fluster slid into the outer line and stopped. When the driver returned he met an indignant officer and an arrest slip, but the big cars remained where they were.

"What's the use?" remarked the officer. "A slip doesn't mean a thing to those city hall folks. You can't move 'em."

The photographer reached Michigan avenue and eased his car toward the curb. "On your way," commanded a bluecoat. "Can't park on the west side of this street."

Then the photographer sneaked back and stole a picture of the four machines between Washington and Madison streets that the officer had somehow missed.

Billburg had been demanding a grand jury investigation. The grand jury met. He said he could tell who was in the Gabel murder car but did not want to tell it to State's Attorney Ben S. Bell. Mr. Bell called in Mr. Brundage.

While the attorney general's office was investigating, four men tracked Looney and his son, John Looney Jr., to the public square at noon on Oct. 6 and there staged a gun battle with the Looneys, in which about sixty shots were fired. Young Looney was killed.

Following this there were five more killings, including two policemen, who were riding a den.

Then the citizens on the hill, millionaires and big business men who had been afraid of John Looney's pen more than anything else, got together and decided it was time to get to the bottom of it all.

Editor's Greetings to Brundage.
The grand jury, after six weeks' investigation, has returned no indictments in the Gabel or Looney killings. Mr. Brundage has now entered the field with his investigators and has sent the grand jury home while he gets to work.

Mr. Looney, in his paper, published today, says:
"You are being asked to subscribe to a fund of $50,000 to defend Billburg, et al., for the murder of John Connor Looney, and it is being asked for under the cover of a fund to be used to clean up Rock Island."

The Argus views the situation this way:

"Rock Island's progress has been retarded twenty years by the same menacing influence that is responsible for today's reign of murder and terror, with city and county governments in turmoil and officials discredited in the eyes of their townsmen; the same influence that has kept the grand jury in protracted sessions seeking to apply the law to its accused activities; the same influence that has depressed the community spirit, promoted lawlessness and indecency, compromised and incriminated officialdom and discouraged legitimate enterprise."

And Looney replies:
"Rock Island's progress has been retarded twenty years by the same slimy influence which is responsible for seven killings in this city since Chief Tom Cox was suspended by the business manager of the Argus."
Thus the war goes on.

BEGIN SELECTION OF 500 NEW COPS TO BATTLE CRIME

A police eligible list of 802 names from which the 500 additional policemen who will breast the winter's crime wave about December 1 will be chosen was posted yesterday by the city civil service commission.

Henry F. Janzen, 7904 Avalon avenue, led the list with a mark of 92.51. James F. Farvey, 8803 South Western avenue, was second with 92.65 and John J. McGuire, 8354 Dauphin avenue, was third with a mark of 89.99. Nearly 90 per cent of the recruits are ex-service men. Their addition to the force will give the city approximately 8,100 members of the department, the largest force in the city's history.

Chief Fitzsimmons certified 589 to the payroll at once. He asked for 600, but eleven men waived their rights and the remainder will report beginning today to room 1006, city hall, to have their finger prints made.

SINGER ANSWERS HUSBAND'S SUIT; TELLS OF RIVAL

Other Woman Named by Mme. Matzenauer.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25.—Mme. Margaret Matzenauer, grand opera singer, made her first court statement here today in the divorce proceedings instituted by her chauffeur husband, Floyd Glotzbach, of Monterey, Cal. She declared in a deposition that his relations with Lottie Frates of Monterey, caused their matrimonial difficulties.

Although discovery of his interest in the woman caused a break last January, she testified, she tried to effect a reconciliation for the sake of the child that she then expected.

Her deposition today followed a ruling by the Superior court denying the petition of her counsel to have Glotzbach's divorce action thrown out of court.

Tried to Push Husband Ahead.
Mme. Matzenauer asserted that she encouraged her husband to associate with men of culture and did not try to keep him in the background.

After their first separation last fall, when Glotzbach returned to his former occupation of chauffeur at Monterey, and she went back to New York, she discovered, she said, that some of the $150 checks she gave him monthly came back from the bank endorsed by Glotzbach to Lottie Frates and cashed by her.

In January of this year, when they were together again, her deposition continued, she taxed him with being interested in another woman and finally threatened to open the next letter he received. On carrying out her threat, the singer said, her eyes fell on a letter, addressed to Glotzbach and by her.

signed by Lottie Frates, which referred to the writer's condition.

Attempts a Reconciliation.
After she read it, the singer said, a separation took place, but on Feb. 14 she decided to attempt a reconciliation and sent her husband a telegram asking him to meet her in Chicago on Feb. 28.

"No obligation of reconciliation for you," said this telegram, which was offered as evidence in the case. "Only let us try if we cannot find a way to settle our troubles for the sake of our child. I will be there alone and promise that nobody will ever know. Grant me this last favor."

There was no answer to this appeal, she said, and two of her New York friends, E. S. Ullman and Agostini Valeri, telegraphed to Glotzbach attempting to effect a reconciliation.

Another telegram, dated March 17, addressed to her New York attorney, John Godfrey Saxe, and signed "Floyd Glotzbach," said:

"Referring to uncalled for press reports, my wife has no cause for divorce action. Will contest case. Have good offer from newspapers for exclusive, interesting story of facts, and unless I hear from you or madame immediately will release story. Wire me at San Francisco."

The prima donna underwent a brief cross-examination. She admitted that she knew Glotzbach and Lottie Frates had known each other for years, and said her belief that her husband was not faithful resulted from her discovery of the latter, the checks endorsed to Lottie Frates, and reports of a later episode at Monterey, where Glotzbach was reported to have had a fight with another man in the Frates home.

2 CITY CONGRESS SEATS IN DOUBT, DEMOCRATS SAY

All Admit Rainey, Sabath and Kunz 'Sit Pretty.'

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Three congressional districts in Chicago are conceded to be Democratic. Two other Cook county districts are classed as doubtful. One doubtful district is claimed definitely by the Democrats and one—possibly two—is doubtful.

This is the situation in the Republican congressional situation in Illinois at present writing, as indicated by the counter claims from Republican and Democratic state headquarters.

In Chicago, Democrats are ready to concede the election of Madden in the First, Mann in the Second, Sproul in the Third, Britten in the Ninth and Chindblom in the Tenth. Barring a quiet underground in the University of Chicago-South Chicago district, where there are symptoms of a gumshoe campaign to defeat James R. Mann, the five named are practically assured of election.

Three Democrats "Sit Pretty." Republicans do not seriously expect to defeat the three sitting Democratic congressmen from Chicago—Rainey of the Fourth, Sabath of the Fifth and Kunz of the Eighth.

The Sixth is fighting ground. Democrats figure a victory there on the assumption that the west side wards will deliver a big Democratic majority which will carry with it the election to congress of James R. Buckley over Congressman John J. Gorman. Congressman Gorman's friends, however, are extremely confident he will be re-elected regardless of the county situation. District conditions cared for through Congressman Gorman, his adherents assert, are certain to assure his reelection.

On the northwest side, Congressman M. A. Michaelson, who stands out as the spokesman for city hall Republican factional interests in the Seventh district, has a real fight on his hands with Frank M. Padden, Democratic nominee. Padden men assert the district is normally Democratic, having elected Frank Buchanan as a Democrat prior to the 1920 landslide, and that his chance to defeat Michaelson is at least even.

Joliet District Battle Ground. Out in the state Democrats have a degree of hope in winning the Joliet-Aurora district, where Edward J. O'Brien of Elgin, Democrat, running on a light wine and beer platform, is opposed to Frank R. Reid, the Republican who defeated Congressman Ira C. Copley in the April primaries. Election of Henry T. Rainey to his old seat from the Twentieth district is confidently expected by Democrats, as

POLITICAL NEWS

In contrast with the revised figures last spring there has been a loss of 77,037 names from the poll books, according to the final figures for the recent registration. The official total now is 804,648, consisting of 511,284 men and 293,364 women.

The "mystic call" to a Halloween dinner of the Woman's Roosevelt Republic club at the Congress hotel Saturday night announces that the program will include "mysterious portents and prophecies, witches with their caldron of black magic, and ghosts with trailing robes of candidates' fears."

Ald. U. S. Schwartz, Democratic nominee for the board of review, made public a letter of endorsement from the World's War Veterans, commending him for his advocacy of a "real bonus," his record in the council, and his activities in urging municipal ownership.

John H. Palandach has revised the slogan, "Vote the straight Republican ticket," by adding the words, "from the bottom up." He is the last of the list of ten nominees for the county board.

against Congressman Guy L. Shaw. Republicans, however, are claiming Shaw can be re-elected in this strongly Democratic district. The Twenty-third district is held to be extremely doubtful, with the chances now favoring the present Republican, Congressman E. S. Brooks. William W. Arnold, the Democrat, running as a Wilson-McAdoo adherent, is reported to have lost ground within the last fortnight.

Peoria Contest Complicated. Late developments in the Hull-Black contest in the Peoria district have tended to complicate that situation, but in the Springfield district, the reelection of Congressman Wheeler now seems to be assured. All other downstate Republican congressmen, apparently, are assured of reelection and State Treasurer Miller figures as a sure winner in the East St. Louis district for the seat vacated by William A. Rodenberg.

In the Danville district, reports are that all Republican interests have been amalgamated behind William P. Holaday as Uncle Joe Cannon's successor, indicating his election by the normal Republican majority in this district. For congressmen-at-large, the Republican nominees, Richard Yates and Henry R. Rathbone, appear to have easy going, barring only possibility of Democratic landslide.

PLAN TO CHANGE POLL LISTS STIRS DEMOCRATS' IRE

BY PARKE BROWN.

Democratic ire against County Judge Frank S. Righelmer took on new impetus yesterday when a "secret" scheme to increase the Republican vote in violation of the law was uncovered in connection with the recent general registration.

The Democratic county managers who already have assailed Judge Righelmer bitterly with charges of prejudice in the fixing of new precinct lines, with establishing polling places in Democratic precincts at inaccessible points and with moving polling places without notice, said the latest move was so far beyond the limit of endurance that they would make a court battle against it.

Attorney Colin C. H. Fyffe, former counsel for the election board, was called into conference and he and Attorney Francis W. Walker were authorized to make an investigation today and, if the results warranted that step, to go before Judge Righelmer with their complaint tomorrow.

Moynihan Ad Starts It.

In a recent issue of The Daily Calumet, the South Chicago mouthpiece of Utilities Commissioner Patrick H. Moynihan, under indictment in the school scandal, appeared a notice to voters signed by him as Republican committeeman of the new Tenth ward. It called attention to the fact that because of the confusion resulting from new precinct lines many voters registered in the wrong precinct, and then proceeded:

"If such is your case you will kindly communicate with me. I will see that your name is entered on the poll books in the precinct in which you live. . . I have made arrangements whereby your name can be transferred without your having to make a trip down to the office of the election commissioners."

Attorney Fyffe, after looking over the law on the subject, declared emphatically that there is no lawful method whereby the name of a voter can be transferred from the poll list of one precinct to the poll list of another.

Against Theory of Registration. "The whole theory of registration," he said, "is that no man's name shall go on the list as a qualified voter except after he has been examined by the judges and clerks of the precinct and he has been subjected to the tests of the canvass and revision. If the Moynihan plan were adopted the judges and clerks of the precincts would have no voice whatever in saying whether these transferred names should be accepted.

"And the prohibition of such conduct is absolute now that the revision has been completed and the books signed up and closed until the next registration. There is no legal method whereby by any poll book may be increased by the addition of a single new name."

County Chairman Martin J. O'Brien announced that this would be a finish fight.

"Matters would not look so bad," he said, "if there had been a public announcement that mistakes of this sort would be rectified. But apparently this is purely a Republican matter. We intend to ask the county court to prevent any such transfers as Moynihan suggests. If any have been made already we shall ask that they be erased."

"And if the court holds that he is within his powers in reference to Republicans we shall ask that the thousands of Democrats who registered in the wrong precincts be given the same right of transfer."

Now beautify teeth in this way Millions of them—the world over

Careful people, well advised, now use a new teeth-cleaning method—millions of them in every clime, and largely by dental advice.

Beautiful teeth you see everywhere show the results of this method.

It is something you should know. Learn what it means to you and yours. Make this free ten-day test.

Combats the dingy film

It is film that makes teeth dingy—that vicious film you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. Food stains discolor it, then it forms thin cloudy coats. Tartar is based on film.

The ordinary tooth paste does not end film. So most teeth, in the old days, were more or less discolored.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film. Under old methods, they were constantly increasing. The most careful people rarely escaped.

Two combatants now

Dental science, after long research, has found two film combatants. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it. Able authorities have amply proved their efficiency. Now leading dentists the world over are urging their daily use.

A new tooth paste has been created, based on modern research. It brings five effects now considered essential. It avoids several old mistakes.

This tooth paste is called Pepsodent. And those two great film combatants are embodied in it.

Other desired effects

Modern research has found other things essential, and Pepsodent brings those effects.

It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits on teeth which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize the acids which cause decay.

Thus Pepsodent gives manifold power to Nature's great tooth-protecting agents. It polishes the teeth so film less easily adheres. Old-time tooth pastes, based on soap and chalk, brought just opposite effects.

In these ways, Pepsodent is bringing a new dental era. Already it has brought to millions whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. The peoples of fifty nations are being taught to use it. And their children will get life-long benefits which your childhood missed.

Why Men's Teeth Gladden everywhere today

The film on teeth of men who smoke becomes especially discolored. But note how men's teeth gladden nowadays—men who remove the film. Note how men and women, when they smile, are showing pretty teeth. These are Pepsodent effects, now attained by millions, largely through dental advice. They do not come by scoring teeth in any harmful way, but by scientific film removal.

G. O. P. FINDS ITS FULL DINNER PAIL CRY MAKES A HIT

Campaign Book Stresses Nation's Prosperity.

Having tried out the slogan among workmen and employers, having watched its effect at union meetings and noonday luncheons in the loop, the Republican county organization has brought the "full dinner pail" into the campaign.

It was tested by the use of a few red, white, and blue badges bearing a drawing of the traditional pail and bearing the words "Straight Republican. Keep the Pail Full," and these samples were so well received that many thousands of them are to be distributed before election day.

And the same theme is carried by the cover of the new campaign book, "Keep the Dinner Pail Full" is the appeal, followed by the injunction to vote for "Republican principles, policies, and candidates."

Emphasizes Prosperity.
The text book emphasizes the improvement in business conditions during the last eighteen months, and this is to be followed up by printed and spoken citations of special evidences of the return of prosperity under the Republican administration.

In contrast to this text book, which will be ready for distribution today, stresses the extravagance of the Democratic national administration during and following the war.

"We're just beginning the real fight," said County Chairman Homer K. Galpin. "We let the Democrats unload all the arguments they had and let the public have a chance to see how thin they were. Now we propose to show the voters the real picture."

Women Indorse Whole Ticket.
All elements in the Republican camp were enthusiastically represented at an afternoon meeting of women at the Hotel Sherman, at which the entire ticket was indorsed by formal resolution. Approximately 600 women attended.

In addition to the main resolution they adopted another approving County Judge Frank S. Righelmer's position in recognizing and utilizing women in election judges and clerks and appealing to women voters for support because of such recognition.

"Out of 11,000 judges and clerks of election," a part of it read, "he has appointed 400 more women than men. There are precincts where the entire wards are made up of women."

JUDGES TESTIFY IN 'THIRD DEGREE' INQUIRY BY JURY

Judges, lawyers, crooks, and ex-crooks followed one another before the grand jury yesterday to testify in the investigation into alleged police "brutality" instigated by Judge Marcus Kavanagh. Those who appeared yesterday were: Judges Francis Wilson, Daniel Trade, and Joseph David, Attorneys Benjamin J. Short, John R. McCabe, Frank McDonnell, and Frank Cantwell, Dr. Gilbert Pond, and Homer Byrd, John Johnson, Robert Moore, Daniel Corcoran, Patrick Driscoll, and Philip Leslie. The six last named are former defendants or are under sentence.

Charges that police officers have used the third degree are made. Witnesses have told the jury of being beaten with rubber hose, and blackjacks, of being kicked, and burned with cigars. Many of the charges center about the detective bureau. Chief Justice McKinley of the Criminal court will head the list of today's witnesses. In instructing the jury, Judge Kavanagh cited the Rogers case in the Supreme court where a ruling on the barring of confessions obtained by brutality is laid down.

LOWDEN WARNS OF CHAOS UNLESS REPUBLICANS WIN

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—"To expect the Republican administration to correct all the errors of eight years of Democratic misrule in the eighteen months it has been in power is expecting the impossible," former Gov. Frank O. Lowden declared here last night. "Still in this short time it has done much to correct these mistakes."

The former governor was speaking in behalf of Congressman W. E. Hull, a candidate against reelection against Jesse Black Jr.

"It is unthinkable that the American people would withdraw its mandate from the Republican administration just when it is in a position to do its greatest work. Not only would the people veto their decision of two years ago, but a deadlock in government would result extending over two years as critical as any in our history. Whatever happens in November there will be a Republican President and senate for two years, and a Democratic house would only cause disorder and governmental chaos. So strongly do I feel on this point that even if I were a Democrat I would not want a Democratic house this fall."

Girl Who Tried to Emulate Miss Davis Found; at Home

Gladys Nichols, a pupil of the Carl Schurz high school, who has just reached her sixteenth birthday, wanted to be like Margaret Davis—dress like a boy, work on a farm and be found by battalion of newspaper men.

Her prank lasted two days. She was found at Park Ridge, Ill. yesterday, and "marched" home to her guardian, Dr. Frank F. Hoffman, 2514 Smalley street.

"GREATER NEED FOR EFFICIENT NAVY"—HARDING

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—President Harding's approval of the celebration by the nation of Navy day on Friday is formally expressed in a letter from the President to Secretary Denby made public today at the navy department. It was written in answer to Mr. Denby's report that plans for the celebration over the country had met with "very cordial response." The President, in his letter, said: "It is well for us to have in mind that under a program of lessening navy armaments there is a greater reason for maintaining the highest efficiency, fitness, and morale in this branch of the national defensive service. I know how earnestly the navy personnel is devoted to this ideal, and want you to be assured of my hearty concurrence."

Commenting today on the Navy day celebration, Secretary Hughes declared it would be upon a basis of relative naval strength that "we would enter in future conferences to make agreements for limitation, and it would be folly to undermine our position."

CHICAGOAN BEATEN TO DEATH.

CITY BRINGS SUIT
TO REGAIN 'SUGAR'
PAID APPRAISERSCharges Fraud to Concern
Exposed by Tribune.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The crowd of city experts who reaped a golden harvest from the city treasury for the appraisal of the surface and elevated lines were shoved into real trouble yesterday afternoon. This is the Adams-Beatty-Francois corporation, exposed in THE TRIBUNE last week. Their bills, totaling $279,708.06, were heavily padded by sundry means. The padding was dubbed "sugar" by a war poet but unemployed attaché of the concern.

The trouble is a suit filed in the Circuit court to recover "many thousands of dollars" which the concern is alleged to have "fraudulently procured" from the city. The suit was filed in the name of the city, with Corporation Counsel Etzelson, Louis E. Hart, and Lawrence A. Cohen as attorneys. The suit named two attorneys for the concern, a subcommittee headed by Ald. Schwartz appointed to investigate expert fees. This subcommittee recommended and the council adopted an order directing that the suit be filed.

Bill Charges Fraud.

The bill charges a complete and unadmitted fraud in the payment of the $279,708.06 to the appraisal experts. The suit for services alleged to have been performed before Nov. 16, 1919. The city charges "that no services whatsoever were performed by said Adams-Beatty-Francois corporation prior to Nov. 16, 1919, with reference to the appraisal of said surface and elevated lines." It charges that the concern "was not, prior to Nov. 16, 1919, equipped or organized for the appraisal of public utilities."

On this item the bill goes on to say: "The presentation of said bill (No. 10,000) was a fraud. The representation contained in said bill that work had been performed by said Adams-Beatty-Francois corporation upon said appraisals prior to Nov. 16, 1919, for which said corporation was entitled to $10,000 were false and fraudulent and intended to defraud and deceive your orator (city), and did so deceive your orator."

Conceded Time Was Padded. No detail was presented with this bill. But the concern gave the names of the employed and their work either as appraisers or field appraisers for every other bill. With reference to the city charges that they were "a true and correct representation of the time actually spent by employees and officers in said appraisals."

The city charges that the time of appraisers charged to the city were padded. In addition the suit avers regarding others that they "were not in fact appraisers, or appraisers competent in any manner to perform work on said appraisals, and were in fact appraisers in any sense whatever, and did not attempt actually to perform any work upon the appraisals of said properties and that said bills included the time of bookkeepers, typists, mailmen, laborers, draftsmen, salesmen and of persons who were not employees or officers of the Adams-Beatty-Francois corporation or in any manner employed by said corporation, and who had performed absolutely no work upon said appraisals."

President III in Bill. W. S. Adams, president of the concern, is charged in the suit with doctoring the bills to the city "in order to deceive and defraud your orator."

The corporation is returned to as a "mere empty shell or name under which the said W. S. Adams, R. G. Francois and H. O. Beatty were enabled to conduct their fraudulent scheme to defraud your orator, as hereinafter specially detailed, and that the said Adams, Beatty, Francois corporation is insolvent and has no assets out of which the claim of your orator may be satisfied, and has ceased business of any kind."

The partners or some of them are charged with having "absorbed" for themselves "all the assets and property" of the corporation. The city promises to give the experts a fair wage for such services as they actually performed.

SIX UNION CHIEFS
INDICTED; CHARGE
PLOT TO BOYCOTT

Indictments were reported voted by the grand jury yesterday charging six officials of two labor unions with conspiracy to boycott the Superb Dyeing and Cleaning company, 1721 Milwaukee avenue, owned by Vladimir Busch. They are the outgrowth of an investigation conducted by Assistant State's Attorney William F. McLaughlin.

Those named are James P. Gorman, business agent of the Dyers and Cleaners' union; Thaddeus Weiss, secretary and treasurer of the union; Benjamin A. Abrams, business agent; Harry Cior and Joseph Burger, business agents of the Laundry and Dye House Drivers and Chauffeurs' union, and Robert Rado, driver of the latter union.

BRITISH INSIST U. S. SIT AT TURK PEACE TABLE

PARIS, Oct. 25.—[By the Associated Press.]—American representation at the Lausanne conference on peace in the near east was insisted upon by Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary. In the course of an interview today with Count de Saint-Aulaire, the French ambassador at London, he pointed out that an American observer was present at San Remo when the Sevres treaty was drafted and it would be helpful if the United States was represented at the forthcoming conference, not merely by an observer, but a real plenipotentiary.

Premier Poincaré, as president of the last near east conference is expected to send out the invitations. Those for Great Britain, Italy, Japan, United States, Jugoslavia, Rumania and Greece will be forwarded through the respective ambassadors, that to Turkey through the high commissioner, while the invitation to Russia will be sent direct to the Moscow government, which, in turn, will transmit it to Georgia and Ukraine.

Count Sforza, the Italian ambassador to France, called on M. Poincaré tonight and explained the Italian view. It appears probable that compromise will be reached regarding the Italian proposal to allow Russia both to attend the discussion of the straits and sign the treaty, which would remove in advance two sources of dispute—delay and the Turkish or the Russian.

Charges Greeks Devastate Thrace. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 25.—[By Associated Press.]—Ismet Bey, the Kemalist representative, here, issued a statement today accusing the Greeks of extensive devastations in Thrace during their withdrawal.

The nationalist government has notified the International Red Cross committee that the Greeks must release all Turkish civil prisoners immediately or the Turks will declare all Greek civilians in Anatolia war prisoners.

Stops Sultan's Payments. LONDON, Oct. 25.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Ankara representative, has written to the Constantinople banks warning them that no payments made on account of the Constantinople government will be recognized by the Ankara government.

Kemal Pasha Ill. [Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] BRUSA, Oct. 22.—[Delayed.]—Mustapha Kemal Pasha is sick with a severe eschare and is proceeding to Ankara. The Anatolia newspapers have reserved their opinion regarding the appointment of Andrew Bonar Law as the British prime minister but they believe the presence of Lord Derby in the cabinet will influence a policy not hostile to Turkey.

U. S. Red Cross Aids 800,000. [Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] ATHENS, Oct. 25.—Minister of Public Works Doxiadis and an aid have gone to Macedonia and Thrace to supervise arrangements for caring for the refugees from Asia Minor and eastern Thrace.

The announcement of the American Red Cross that it would care for 800,000 refugees has aroused much rejoicing here. The newspapers are commenting bitterly that the United States is the sole power helping Greece.

Bulgaria Frames Demands. [Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] TRIESTE, Oct. 25.—Foreign Minister Duka of Roumania today said his country's demands at the near east peace conference will include freedom of the straits and a neutral corridor between Turkey and Bulgaria.

Turkish Poetess Plans Propaganda Tour of U. S. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 25.—Hall-Edin Hanum, famous Turkish poetess and wife of the vice president of the Ankara government, plans to leave next month for a propaganda tour of England and America.

KOHLSAAT, VICTIM OF PARALYSIS, IS OUT OF DANGER

New York, Oct. 25.—[Special.]—H. H. Kohlsaat, retired Chicago publisher, for many years a national Republican leader and generally credited with having written the gold plank into the Republican platform of 1896, is suffering from paralysis.

He was stricken five weeks ago at the Biltmore hotel here, where he has been living for the last four years. Friends have known of his attack and many of them have been permitted to visit him.

Past Danger Stage. However, his physicians, Dr. J. Prescott Grant and Dr. Coleman Cutler, say that he has now passed the danger stage and unless a relapse sets in he should be restored to normal health within a short time.

Mrs. Kohlsaat who has been constantly with her husband, said tonight his condition was wholly favorable. Mr. Kohlsaat has not been in perfect health for several years. His affliction appears traceable to a clot on the brain, which gave him serious trouble seven or eight years ago upon his return from Europe. Recently his health had been fair until the slight stroke of paralysis.

Reminiscences of Presidents. Mr. Kohlsaat has been retired from business, but recently wrote a series of articles for the Saturday Evening Post, giving his reminiscences of American presidents from McKinley to Harding. He was the confidant of all and is credited with having a wide personal knowledge of White House affairs since the days of McKinley. Among the political friends who have visited him recently was Col. E. M. House.

U. S. Was Canada's Best Customer During Past Year. Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The United States is again Canada's best customer. For a few months past the United Kingdom had supplanted the United States in taking first place as a purchaser of Canadian goods, but trade figures for the twelve months ended in September show that the United States now leads the United Kingdom by about $11,000,000.

FASCISTI CHIEF IN HIS FAREWELL WARNS CABINET

NAPLES, Oct. 25.—[By the Associated Press.]—"I take a solemn oath that either the government of the country must be given peacefully to the Fascists or we will take it by force," was the farewell statement made by Prof. Benito Mussolini, leader of the Fascists, prior to leaving Naples at the end of the party's congress held here.

The gathering of the Fascists passed without any grave incident. The only notable event was the invasion of the Naples office of the Rome newspaper Mondo, which published an article favorable to former Premier Nitti, against whom the hatred of the Fascists is chiefly directed.

Gen. Albrici, who was minister of war in one of the cabinets of Signor Nitti and who is alleged to have given amnesty to deserters, was absent from Naples during the Fascist congress, although he is in command of the army corps here.

COUNCIL LIMIT ON TAG DAYS IS IN THE OFFING

Belief for the much tagged public is on the horizon.

The council finance committee yesterday unanimously passed Aid. A. O. Anderson's order directing Chief Fitzmorris and the city law department to issue no more permits for tag days not authorized by the city tag day ordinance, which specifically limits tag days to three each year—one for children's charities, one for charitable organizations catering to the aged and adults, and a third for miscellaneous charitable organizations.

"Something has got to be done about tag days," Chairman Richard declared. "The public is demanding it." Chief Fitzmorris declared that he would be glad to enforce the order if the council concurs in it at its next meeting, Nov. 1.

Instant Quaker Oats

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

Two Styles Now
One is almost ready to serve
Both have that super-flavor

Quaker Oats comes in two styles now. And both styles excel any other oats you know. Instant Quaker has been perfected by our experts. It cooks in from 3 to 5 minutes—the quickest-cooking oats in the world. And it cooks to perfection.

Both have that super-flavor. The world-wide fame of Quaker Oats is due to a super-flavor. It is flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, savory oats. We get ten pounds of these delicious flakes from a bushel.

Oat lovers everywhere send here for that flavor. Instant Quaker has that same flavor. It is flaked from the same queen grains. But the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and are partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

So Quaker Oats now offer two great advantages. They offer a flavor which no other oats can match. And now in addition, if you wish, oats that cook in five minutes or less. Get either kind you want. But don't, if you love oats, get less savory oats than Quaker.

DANIELS DIFFERS WITH LANE VIEW ON WAR CABINET

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—Declaring a "wholly wrong impression" of important historical facts had been given in one of the recently published letters of Franklin D. Lane, secretary of the interior under President Wilson, Josephus Daniels, who sat in the Wilson cabinet as secretary of the navy, telegraphed the Associated Press tonight a story of the events which he said had led up to the adoption of the convoy system of protecting American ships early in 1917.

Mr. Daniels' message, sent from High Point, N. C., made particular reference to a statement in one of the Lane letters saying that at a cabinet meeting on Feb. 25, 1917, "Daniels said we must not convoy—that it would be dangerous." The letter also attributed to President Wilson a suggestion that "this country was not willing that we should take any risk of war."

Daniels Quotes from Diary.
"Fortunately, I kept a diary in these days," said Mr. Daniels' telegram. "Here is exactly what happened at that cabinet meeting in February, before we had entered the war: President Wilson turned to me and asked, 'Daniels, why have the British not convoyed their ships?'"

"In reply I informed him that the policy of the British admiralty was against the convoy; that after long experience in the war the merchant captains preferred to take their chances sailing singly rather than in convoy formation, and that they regarded it more dangerous in U-boat zones to sail in company under convoy than for each merchant ship to go on its own. I added that some of our naval officers of high rank held this same view. That was the only use I made of the word 'dangerous.'"

President's View of Convoys.
"The President replied that he believed the British admiralty was wrong and those American naval officers who agreed with them were also wrong, and that the British ought long ago to have convoyed their ships. A few weeks later, I think it was the last day of March, 1917, when giving Ad-

THOMAS TO EXPLAIN NEW PRESS AGENT IN MEDILL LECTURE

All about the new kind of press agent at Medill School of Journalism of Northwestern University this evening by Charles Randolph Thomas of La Salle Extension university.

Not the peevish kind that drives city editors to nervous prostration but the profitable kind that launches campaigns for forest preservation, for good roads, for export trade, and similar things that really matter. "The press agent—or publicity agent," says Mr. Thomas, "is a Boswell to many Johnsons; he puts his best foot forward—but with discretion." How he does it, scientifically and civilly, Mr. Thomas is going to tell, and at the end of his discourse a six page monograph on the subject will be his present to every member of the audience.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon Harry G. Davenport, representative of a family that has made honorable stage history for nearly a century, will lecture to the Medillians on "Comedy—and Other Serious Matters."

All these Medill Forum lectures are open to the public, are free and are given at 31 West Lake street.

Admiral Sims instructions I told him that President Wilson had long believed that the allies ought to use the convoy and did not agree with our own naval officers who took the same position that the British admiralty and the other allies had practiced. Shortly after his arrival in London Admiral Sims presented President Wilson's views on the convoy to Admiral Jellicoe and a short time thereafter the convoy system was put in practice with good results.

CLINE FREED OF MURDER CHARGE ON FIRST BALLOT

Hackensack, N. J., Oct. 25.—A jury in Bergen county, headed by a 23 year old girl, Miss Susan Squires, today acquitted George Cline, motion picture location finder, charged with murder, and also freed his brother-in-law, Charles Scullion, and Alice Thornton, a friend, of charges of being implicated with him in the shooting to death of "Daredevil" Jack Bergen, motion picture actor, following a trial consuming less than seventeen court hours.

It was the first time in the history of judicial practice in New Jersey that a verdict in a murder trial was handed up by a woman. The evidence, which resolved itself largely into a series of moral problems, was passed upon by a jury composed equally of men and women. And it was one of the speediest trials ever held in a state noted for the rapidity of its judicial machinery.

Verdict on First Ballot.
Today the defense called five witnesses, four of them in rebuttal, before resting its case. The jury retired at 1 o'clock, and after one hour and forty minutes of deliberation the first ballot was taken and the jury sent word to Justice Parker that it had reached a decision.

The jurors filed into the jury box a moment later. Miss Squires, a slip of a girl, rose in her place at the head of the jury.

"Have you agreed upon a verdict?" asked the court.

Her answer, "we have," was caught only by the clerk, despite absolute silence in the court room. Some within a few feet of the jury box believed she had said "guilty."

Girl Announces Verdict.
"Did you say 'guilty' or 'not guilty'?" asked the clerk.

Miss Squires cleared her throat with effort.

"Not guilty," she replied, and the words were audible throughout the room.

Cut out this message and hand it to some sufferer from constipation!

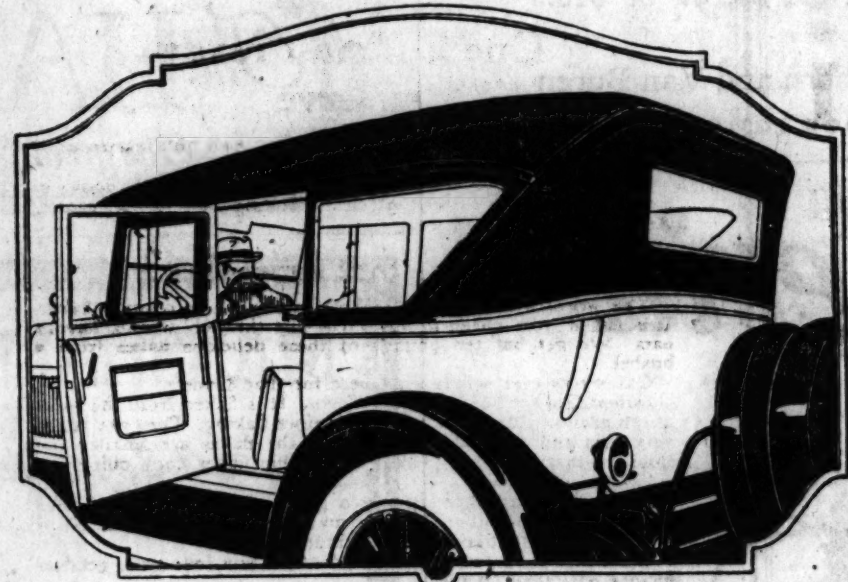

Nature has provided the one sure, permanent relief from the horrors of constipation—BRAN—Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumpled! Bran will correct the severest case of constipation if it is eaten regularly. For Bran, as a nature's wonderful "roughage" food, clears the eliminative tract in a positive way, leaving it clean and purified.

Do not let constipation get the upper hand; do not neglect the mildest symptoms, because constipation is only the forerunner of disease, premature old age, and many forms of child illness! Ninety per cent of all sickness can be traced to constipation, which is the direct cause of such diseases as diabetes and Bright's. Fight constipation with Kellogg's Bran! We guarantee results if you eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily; in chronic cases, with each meal! Kellogg's Bran is not only a permanent corrective for constipation, and a very delicious cereal, but it is one of nature's most valuable foods because of its richness in mineral salts. It stimulates brain and nerve cells in grown people; it aids children to become strong and robust! Kellogg's Bran will correct a pimply complexion and an obnoxious breath.

Kellogg's Bran is not only an unequalled health aid, but delightful as a cereal or sprinkled over your favorite cereal. Its nut-like flavor is very appealing. You never ate such muffins or raisin bread or macaroons or countless other bakery batches as made with bran! Prove out Kellogg's Bran today. Buy it at all grocers!

PEERLESS

Here is a new comfort in winter driving.

Both the four and seven passenger Peerless Phaetons are equipped with a new Permanent Top. Designed as a part of the car, this new top is of graceful line and adds to its trim smartness.

Enclosures of French plate glass fit quickly and snugly in place. The glass is mounted in narrow mouldings of special design so there is nothing to obstruct the vision.

The deep weather-strip channels which hold the glass permit of no looseness or rattling. The windows slide open easily for desired ventilation. No unsightly and clumsy brackets mar the interior of the car.

There are many to whom the open car will always appeal. The lightness, freedom and spirit of open car driving has a compelling charm.

Now with sedan-like comfort in bad weather, the popularity of the open car will only increase.

What education and common sense are doing for thousands

THOUSANDS of people are learning that they cannot drink coffee or tea at supper time and get a good night's sleep.

Experience has taught these men and women to recognize that the caffeine in both coffee and tea is often responsible for a wakeful, restless night, and a nervous "next day."

If you have reason to believe that coffee or tea is causing your headaches, insomnia or nervousness, why not drink rich, refreshing Postum instead.

Postum is the delicious golden-brown cereal beverage that many former coffee-drinkers prefer for its satisfying flavor alone.

Ask your grocer today for Postum and begin serving this delicious beverage at meal times—and see how well you like it.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling fully twenty minutes.

SAD OUTLOOK FOR CRIMINAL IN NEW CONSTITUTION

Bailing Would Become a Difficult Matter.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Reorganization of the judiciary has been a recognized need in Illinois for years. The technique of the criminal class has developed far more rapidly than has that of the courts. Crime is better organized than justice. The easiest thing the police force does is to apprehend the burglar, robber or murderer, but the hardest thing it is up against is to keep him behind the bars. The proposed new constitution, which goes to the voters Dec. 12, remodels the court system from top to bottom. If one is willing to concede that a voter in Cook county should be the equal of one one-third a voter downstate, in the legislature and on the supreme bench, the new draft in its judicial provisions holds out a great advance.

Radical Changes Made.

To begin with, certain radical changes are made in the bill of rights. Section 7 makes the allowance of bail discretionary in cases other than misdemeanors. A murderer or a burglar or a footpad may be kept in jail without being let out on bail pending trial. The present constitution guarantees that "all persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses, where the proof is evident or the presumption great." This guarantee, backed up by statutes requiring trial courts to admit defendants to bail, except for capital offenses, after conviction for time enough to carry the case before the higher courts, has resulted in turning loose many criminals on bail not only before but after trial and conviction, regardless of overwhelming proof of their guilt. And, according to the police, most of the crimes of violence are committed by persons out on bail for other crimes. The new draft simply says "excessive bail shall not be required," which is the language of the United States constitution. Bail being a matter of practice and procedure, it will be subject to regulation by the rules to be promulgated by the Supreme court, and it is fair to assume that these will be framed with more regard for protection of society than for conservation of crime.

Alters Roundabout System.

Also, the grand jury roundabout system may be avoided in some cases.

The new draft provides that, except in capital cases, offenses which may be punished by a term in the penitentiary may be prosecuted by indictment or on information filed by the attorney general or a state's attorney. To file an information a state's attorney must be granted leave by a judge of the criminal court after a showing of probable cause.

The right of the attorney general to file an information for an offense, except capital, punishable by a penitentiary sentence is absolute and no court leave is required. In capital cases a defendant can be held for trial only on a grand jury indictment. Another alteration in the bill of rights provides that the right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate, but may be waived except in capital cases. This permits a defendant in any criminal case, except capital, to waive a jury and to submit his case for trial by the judge alone. Under present practice, although a defendant in a felony case should plead guilty and thus allow the judge to impose sentence, he still could not be tried without a jury. Owing to this inability of a defendant in a felony case to waive jury trial, it is quite common for a state's attorney to waive the felony and let the case be tried by the judge minus a jury, with the result that the defendant can be convicted only of a misdemeanor.

Would Expedite Trials. These various changes in the bill of rights alone, in the opinion of legal authorities, will greatly expedite prosecution of criminal cases without resulting in miscarriage of justice. They will tend to speed up action in the courts—the law's delays and the slowness with which the machinery now operates constitute one reason for the ease with which criminals escape the net of the law.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worms. It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

Beauty and Bacteria

"If a woman's hair is her crowning glory, her mouth is the soulful expression of her beauty," remarked a learned dentist recently.

"My familiarity with mouths has made me a student of human nature," he added, "and I know that most women, and men too, desire good teeth for their effect on good looks!"

"I wonder if many of them realize how CLOSELY RELATED are BEAUTY and BACTERIA—the hundreds of millions of acid-producing germs which breed and thrive in the INCUBATING TEMPERATURE of the mouth, just BACK of the beautiful smile and the artistic rows of teeth?"

The dentist who spoke is one of the artists of his profession, who has received several thousand dollars as a single fee, for bringing back the artistic lines of facial expression to a woman who had prematurely lost her teeth.

"Is there ANYTHING more shocking," he continued, "than to see a beautifully dressed woman with a BLACK, or DECAYED TOOTH in the FRONT of her mouth?"

"Don't Use Grit—Eliminate the Germs!"

"The natural desire for WHITE TEETH, with the LEAST care and advice of the DENTIST, is causing many thousands of men and women to SCOUR THEIR TEETH RECKLESSLY with gritty substances," this eminent dentist declared. "They scratch and score their teeth, rapidly WEARING AWAY THE ENAMEL, until the soft dentine inside is exposed—giving the teeth a YELLOW surface.

Then—DECAY and the LOSS of teeth with the consequent disfiguring of the artistic lines of the face.

"To KEEP beautiful teeth, with their OWN NATURAL lustre, they must first be set in order BY A DENTIST, and then BRUSHED and POLISHED REGULARLY WITHOUT THE USE OF GRIT."

We have on file in our New Haven laboratories personal applications from over 47,000 American Dentists and 74,000 American Physicians for Kolynos to distribute among their patients.

"I not only recommend Kolynos Dental Cream to my patients," this dentist continued, "but also INSIST THAT THEY USE IT, because it DISSOLVES the tooth film, and eliminates the acid-producing germs of decay in this film, and HUNDREDS of MILLIONS of acid-producing bacteria THROUGHOUT THE MOUTH. That's the point—these mouth bacteria are NOT AFFECTED by the ordinary dentifrice!"

"KOLYNOS CONTAINS NO GRIT, yet it polishes the teeth to perfect lustre.

"People who expect to have FUTURE USE for their teeth and those who want to RETAIN the BEAUTY of a WELL-CARED-FOR MOUTH until they grow old, should understand this relation of bacteria to beauty!"

This is a piece of the VERY FINEST DENTAL ADVICE, free. Act on it—stop using grit and try Kolynos.

SECOND YEAR DRY LAW SHOW CRIME INCREASE

Rum Traffic Gains Gro Records Reveal.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—An enormous increase in the United States during the year of prohibition enforcement, as compared with the years' record, is reported by the census against the Prohibition movement.

The increase has been most in crimes arising directly or indirectly from the liquor traffic, say to Capt. W. H. Stetson, executive head of the American Prohibition Association. Capt. Stetson backed his case with an array of figures gathered from records of fifty cities in every part of the country, representing an aggregate population of 22,000,000.

Figures from Official Records.—Of the accuracy of these there can be no question, said Stetson. "They were obtained from the official records of the municipalities. They show, beyond all contradiction, that crime of all kinds has increased at an enormous rate since 1920 and 1921, and that the rate of public administration has increased at a like rate during the same period. In 1920, or the first year of prohibition legislation, these cities showed a total of 382,519 arrests for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. In 1921 the number increased to 441,068, or 34.21 per cent more in 1920. Arrests for all causes in cities in the same years aggregated 1,225,864 in 1920, and 1,464,254 in 1921, representing an increase in the year over the former of 18.67 per cent.

Discuss Dry Arguments.—"In other words, arrests for crimes in these cities increased 19 per cent last year over the previous year, while arrests for drunkenness and disorderly conduct increased 34.21 per cent."

BODY OF SLAIN WOMAN BURIED IN OHIO WOODS

Cleveland, O., Oct. 25.—The body of Mrs. Henry J. Burns, 35, of this city, partially clothed, was unearthed from a newly dug grave, covered with dead leaves, in a lonely woods five and one-half miles northwest of Painesville late today.

Discovery of the grave was made by two Cleveland dentists, Dr. D. C. Cornell and Dr. W. R. Beattie, who were hunting in the woods, when they came across a hat with splashes of blood on it. They notified deputy sheriffs at Painesville, who dug up the body.

Identification was made by Mrs. Burns' husband here after he had seen necklace, wrist watch, and keys found on the body of the murdered woman.

See Man Hurry Away.

Shortly after the two dentists had discovered the bloody clothing they saw a man with a basket hurrying through the woods. They called to him, police said, but he refused to stop. The two men, however, ran to the road past the woods and saw the license number of the machine in which he drove away. Detectives tracing it took the driver to police headquarters for questioning. He declared he had been chattering all day, police said, and denied any knowledge of the murder.

Shot Through Left Eye.

Examination of the body showed Mrs. Burns had been shot through the left eye. The back of her head was crushed, while her face was marked by long scars and scratches. No other wounds were on the body. Her watch had stopped at three minutes past 12 and deputy sheriffs believe that was the time the murder was committed. They are of the opinion the murderer left the victim's body in the woods late night and buried it this morning.

FINED ON TWO CHARGES.

On a charge of maintaining a still, Frank Wolzak, 438 Ada street, was fined $200, and on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of his son, Edward, 12 years old, $100 and costs, by Municipal Judge Schulman yesterday.

BLAME AUTOISTS FOR INCREASE IN CROSSING DEATHS

Penn Officials Blame Reckless Driving.

Casualties in grade crossing accidents on the Pennsylvania railroad system increased 30 per cent during the three summer months in the face of the most extensive educational campaign against such accidents ever carried on, according to a bulletin issued by the company.

Yet in twelve months, according to the bulletin, the road operated 1,400,000 passenger trains and carried 152,000,000 passengers without a single loss of life.

Auto Drivers Inexperienced.

"The chief reason for this striking contrast is that locomotive engineers are thoroughly trained in every detail of their work and are required to demonstrate knowledge and ability to operate trains safely," the bulletin reads. "On the other hand analysis of the causes of crossing accidents shows that the vast majority of motor car casualties at railroad highway crossings are attributable to a comparatively small percentage of inexperienced and irresponsible automobile drivers who have neither the knowledge, training, nor judgment required for the safe operation of such machines. The result is failure to exercise even the most ordinary precautions necessary for protection of life when approaching or driving over railroad tracks."

What is needed is not a careful crossing campaign, as was conducted last summer by the railroads, but "a national campaign against all forms of careless automobile driving," according to the bulletin.

71 Killed, 107 Injured.

During the three months of the careful crossing campaign, there were 107 crossing accidents in which seventy-one persons were killed and 115 injured on the Pennsylvania system alone. Eighty-five of these were automobile accidents. They caused the death of fifty-six persons and injury of 107. In twelve of the accidents thirty-nine persons were killed and four accidents caused the death of twenty persons, or an average of five for each car involved.

VOLIVA GOES TO TRIAL BY JURY ON CHARGE OF LIBEL

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion City, went to trial yesterday before a jury in Judge Claire C. Edwards' court in Waukegan on a charge of criminal libel brought by Thomas H. Nelson, a former elder in Voliva's church. Nelson charges Voliva circulated a handbill in which he was called "a tomcat, a goat, a fool, a wild man of Borneo, a discredited windbag" and other things.

Voliva announced his defense would be "truth and worthy motives." State Attorney A. V. Smith said he would call about 20 witnesses for the prosecution. Voliva expects to call 20.

Only 38—yet looks every day of 50

How wrong shaving brings the lines of age to men's faces. Amazing new facts from world-noted dermatologists

When you feel a sensation in shaving—beware. It's a danger signal.

It means the roots of your beard are being over-exercised by pulling, and that a rough skin is on the way.

The deep lines of age, furrows and wrinkles closely follow. Any skin specialist will tell you so.

Not vanity—but good business.

This is not an appeal to vanity, but to good business.

In this day, no man past 30 can afford to look older than he is. For commercially, youth, not age, is being sought.

Yet leading dermatologists tell us that three men in four, between 30 and 40, look years older than they are, because of wrong shaving methods.

Note the men you meet—anywhere. Some look old before their time. Others seem to hold the secret of youth.

Ninety per cent of it is in how they shave. Scores of wealthy men have private barbers for that reason.

2 years of wrong shaving will add 10 years to your looks. One month of correct shaving will take years away. These are scientific facts, vouched for by foremost authorities on the skin.

For youth—a keen blade

You should be able to shave clean—if your beard is average—by going over your face one time. Note this fact and mark it.

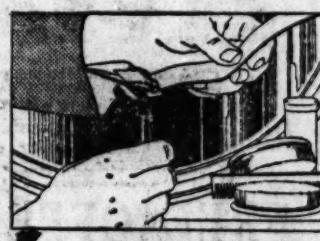

And you can't accomplish that with anything short of a super-keen blade. Ordinary sharpness won't do it.

For that reason many of the most noted skin specialists in the United States are advising men to turn to the Valet AutoStrop Razor. A barber's edge—the keenest cutting edge known—on a safety razor blade.

We talk about it in terms of time, "78 Seconds from Lather to Towel," because you can't shave quick with a dull blade.

Once over the face!

You go over your face—once. That's all. The result is a super-velvet shave.

No scraping. No after-shave smart. No shaving lotions needed. The blade cuts clean. No tugging at the hair roots to invite eruptions and roughness.

One famous specialist goes so far as to say that one month of shaving in this way, will turn back the calendar several years for any man of 35 or more, who is now shaving old-time ways.

Sharpens itself
We recommend your using our famous strop for the same reason a barber strops his razor. It keeps up the keenness. It works as part of each razor—there if you care to use it, or, if you choose, you can just insert new blades as you feel the need. Self-stropping is a patented Valet AutoStrop feature. It helps to give you the world's fastest shave every day.

You can obtain a Valet AutoStrop at any dealer's. $1 and $5. The difference in price is marked by the superlative finish, the better case and the greater number of blades. Gold plated and sterling silver fitted sets—ideal for gifts—are priced up to $25. Try one. It will prove a revelation.

The World's Fastest Shave!

78 Seconds
from Lather to Towel

To shave right, you must shave quickly. Once over the face, no oftener.

So we've processed a barber's edge blade—the keenest known—to help men do it.

And we offer now, the world's fastest shave, embodying 3 things you've never had before.

First—a super-velvet shave, going over the face one time. No scraping.

Second—a quick shave. 78 seconds from lather to towel. Only a super-keen blade can do it.

Third—a 78 second super-velvet shave every day. The strop keeps up the edge of the blade.

STONE USED IN HAMMER MURDER PUT IN EVIDENCE

BY EDWARD DOHERTY.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—The state of California today began to build up its case against Clara Phillips, charged with the murder of Alberta Meadows.

It builded on a big rock, a white one, stained on its jagged face with dark spots. For more than an hour it rested on the witness stand, where Mrs. Phillips must look at it, and where the jurors could not fail to see it. It was the rock found resting on the right arm and shoulder of Alberta Meadows, when her body was discovered lying in Montecito road last July 12.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Dewar carried it across the court room, using both hands, stooping a little, as if the rock were heavy.

Tells of Finding Rock.

Deputy District Attorney Charles Price, examining Policeman H. M. Hill, had asked that the rock be placed in evidence.

Genora Tremaine, 16 year old sister of the dead woman, gasped when she saw Dewar carrying the rock. Mrs. Phillips' countenance did not change. Hill told of finding the rock on the body, the black spots were blood, he said. The blood was on top of the rock. There were strands of hair in the blood. It was possible the rock had fallen from the bank above the body, he said. What else had he found there?

A clean brown wrapping paper wrinkled as though something cylindrical had been wrapped in it. Something about twelve or fifteen inches long. A hammer, he thought.

Makes No Opening Statement.

The trial began after Mrs. Maude Wiley had been sworn in as the thirteenth juror, shortly before noon. The district read the indictment. Price declined to make an opening statement. He called Mr. Tremaine as the first witness, a tall man, thin, with the face of an ascetic. He identified pictures of his daughter. On cross examination he answered shortly and stiffly.

Mrs. Fred Weitz told of seeing the body lying on the road. The police officers whom she notified were then called to the stand, and the rock, the foundation stone of the case, came with them.

WAR OVER STOCK BRINGS CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT

George E. Orr of Glencoe surrendered himself at the detective bureau yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Charles Havenor, head of the Colorado Utah Mines Holding company, charging him with the embezzlement of $152,000 of stock and notes belonging to the company. Mr. Orr described himself as an efficiency expert, who has spent the last eight or ten years in setting tottering companies on their feet.

He admitted that he had the security.

He has a $40,000 home in Winnetka and one worth $18,000 in Glencoe at 785 Grove street, where he has been living. Havenor is also defendant in a suit for $100,000 filed by Mrs. Homig, who says she has not yet received the $100,000 promised her.

Havenor, he says, broke the contract in September, declaring Orr would not be needed after Oct. 1. Orr then commenced suit in Municipal court for back salary, and in the Circuit court for the $100,000 worth of stock which he claims is due him.

Orr is married and has one daughter.

Dandruff Soon Disappears

Simply wet the scalp a few times with Kloria. Wonderful for skin ailments or itching anywhere. Free trial proves it.

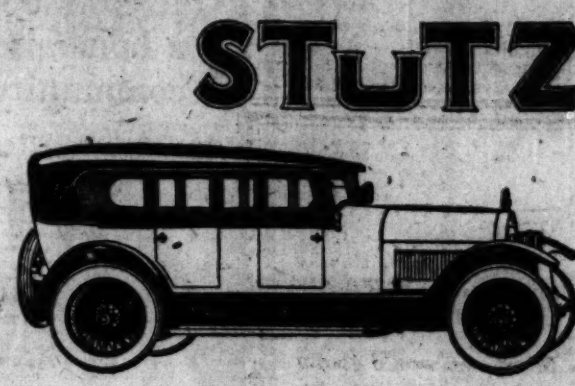

NOTHING could be simpler than wetting the scalp a few times with Kloria. And the results from the very first application will show how easily this scalp annoyance can be ended by a few of these simple treatments. It stops the itching almost immediately, and is as harmless as water to the hair. Kloria is the new and wonderful antiseptic, discovered in the world war, which, by scientific test, is over 40 times more germ-destroying than carbolic acid. This great germicidal power is what makes it so effective. Yet Kloria is not poisonous, doesn't burn or irritate, is soothing, pleasant, safe, and more healing than anything else ever known. For eczema, itching skin, eruptions and irritations, Kloria has an almost magic effect. Wounds, sores, boils and burns often heal in one-fourth the usual time. Test it for pyorrhea (sore, bleeding gums) and notice how promptly the soreness and bleeding disappear—usually in one week. As a mouth-wash, it really destroys the acid-forming bacteria, thus preventing tooth-decay. As a gargle, it relieves sore throat most promptly. Hargreaves, yet far more effective than any poisonous antiseptic for personal hygiene. Dissolve a few Kloria Tablets in water, and instantly you have, at a cost of a few cents, a large bottle of liquid antiseptic which is clean, colorless, stainless and virtually odorless. All druggists. 50c. Money refunded if not satisfied.

Free Sample A sample of Kloria, enough for a convincing test, will be gladly sent free. Write for it. The results will be a revelation. The Kloria Co., Dept. 1, Ft. Wayne, Ind. "The All-Purpose Antiseptic"

Yellow Cab Drivers have the Honesty Habit

While honesty is a virtue, by constant use it becomes a most desirable habit. That Yellow Cab drivers have the habit of honesty is proved by the many valuables left in their cabs which are invariably restored to the owners.

Every day in the year valuables are left in Yellow Cabs by absent-minded passengers. They are purses, hand-bags, fur garments, bracelets, rings, parasols, umbrellas and what not.

On several occasions negotiable liberty bonds worth thousands of dollars have been found by the drivers after their passengers have gone. On one occasion a diamond salesman left his case of unset diamonds. The value ran high into the thousands.

While all this property was turned in to the Company by the drivers, and later returned to the owners thereof, there was nothing to prevent the drivers from turning it all to their own account except their innate honesty.

In none of these cases did the passengers take the printed receipt which the Ohmer Fare Register (used exclusively in this city by Yellow Cabs) yields at the end of each ride, and hence there was no possible way of fixing the identity of the driver. But the property all came back promptly to the owners.

Can you wonder that we are proud of these men? Can you blame us for regarding them as the finest collection of working men in the world?

HERTZ PLEDGES $3,500,000 FOR NEW BUS SYSTEM

John Hertz, president of the Yellow Cab company and a dominating influence in the reorganized Chicago Motor Bus company, yesterday pledged the bus line to an expenditure of $3,500,000, already available, in the development of a comprehensive motor transportation system.

Mr. Hertz placed himself on record as a witness before the Illinois commercial commission, which yesterday resumed hearings on the bus company's application for permission to extend its service to the south side. The ultimate plan, according to Mr. Hertz and other witnesses, is to have bus lines tapping every part of the city.

A formidable array, headed by Chicago Surface Lines representatives, is lined up against the Chicago Motor Bus company petition for a certificate of necessity and convenience. Siding with the opposition are the Chicago Federation of Labor and the Illinois Automobile club.

Appearing for the surface lines, Attorney Henry P. Weber filed an intervening petition citing reasons why the permit should not be granted. After considering that needs of the city are taken care of in the system proposed by the council committee and the all-Chicago council, the intervening petition asserted the commission is in duty bound to consider the effect of the new system upon established utilities.

The elevated lines also have before the commission a petition asking that they be allowed to operate bus lines on the north, west, and south sides as well as for the "L." Attorney C. H. Jones, for the elevated lines, urged that hearing on this be delayed on the ground that the city council had not yet acted on a proposed ordinance that would authorize the elevated companies to operate the feeders.

B. J. MULLANEY IS HONORED BY GAS ASSOCIATION

Bernard J. Mullane, manager of the public relations and industrial relations departments of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company, was elected chairman of the advertising section of the American Gas association at the annual convention in Atlantic City yesterday. At the same time he was elected a sectional vice president of the association.

Mr. Mullane is a former Chicago newspaper man, who afterwards became advertising manager for Armour & Co. Later he resigned to become private secretary to the late Mayor Fred A. Busse. During the latter part of Mayor Busse's term he was commissioner of public works of Chicago. He has been associated with the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company since the close of the war.

mobile club is based on the contention that extension of the bus service would further congest boulevards and retard plans for subways and other transportation development. While not so stated before the commission, the opposition of the Chicago Federation of Labor is said to be inspired by apprehension that the bus company, following the lead of the Yellow Cab company, will employ nonunion labor.

STATZ FAILS TO HIT 300; SAVES BRUINS $10,000

BY FRANK SCHREIBER.

When Arnold Statz, speedy Cub center fielder, finished the season with a batting average of .297 he saved the Cubs $10,000, it was revealed yesterday. The Cubs had agreed to pay the Los Angeles club of the Pacific coast league, from whom Statz was purchased, $10,000 in addition to the cash and players already sent to the Sox. If the little star should finish the season with a batting average of .300 or better, the Sox, however, knew nothing of the arrangement.

Four days before the season closed Statz had an average of .291, but in his last four games made only three hits in sixteen times at bat.

Reports from San Francisco yesterday stated that Eddie Mulligan, White Sox infielder, will be sent to the coast team as part payment for Willie Kamm, $100,000 third baseman. Kamm will report to the Sox in the spring.

CASE FOR LANDIS

BY HUGH FULLERTON.

That troublesome Tim Murchison case is up again. This time it threatens to cause a break between Commissioner Kenneth D. Landis and President Al Toney of the Three Eyes league, or to compel Landis to punish the Chicago White Sox.

The case has been revived over a demand by Landis upon Toney to produce evidence regarding the game at Ottawa, Ill., in which the White Sox are charged with having played against Murchison, who was known to be Murchison and under the ban of organized baseball, although the player was under an assumed name.

The Murchison case is more important than the case of one player, for it may mean a further straining of relations between the forces in organized baseball.

Jumps New Orleans Contract.

Murchison played in the Three Eyes league, then with Cleveland one year, then with Milwaukee, and then went to the Southern association. Not liking the climate of New Orleans, he contracted and later became a baseball "outlaw."

He was with the Ottawa club, when Toney wanted to play an exhibition game against Ottawa, but was forbidden. A while later the White Sox played an exhibition game against the same team. The name Murchison did not appear in the score, but it is not denied that the only change was in the spelling of the name.

Toney protested to President Toney that it was unjust that the Sox be permitted to play against a team which was forbidden to meet, and on the strength of a letter from Toney, made an appeal to Landis.

Stirs Landis to Action.

The appeal stirred the commissioner to demand that Toney prove that the Sox players knew Murchison.

Toney investigated, discovered that Murchison had been in the Cleveland team when it played in Chicago, May 5, 1920, and that Mott and Murchison played together on the Milwaukee team for an entire season.

It is understood that Commissioner Landis then questioned the White Sox, who denied knowing Murchison.

If Toney's evidence is upheld, the commissioner may be forced to act on the White Sox case.

END RUN ATTACK LIKELY TO PROVE TIGERS' RELIANCE

(By Walter Eckersall.)

When Chicago and Princeton meet on Saturday in one of the greatest inter-collegiate football games in history, each eleven will present a powerful offensive, supported by a forward wall which is expected to give the backs the necessary protection on ground gaining attempts. Chicago, however, is expected to present a more open and varied attack than the Tigers.

Jack Cleaves, Tiger, who may lead the line, is expected to present a more open and varied attack than the Tigers. He is also fast and elusive and one of the best in the back field is interference. Bob Beattie, Newby, Dwyer, Caldwell, and Crum are the other ball carriers who are almost certain to be seen in the contest. From the open formation any of the backs can be sent straight into the line, or they may hit back on the weak side and unbalanced line formations.

Must Watch Cleaves. Princeton, however, will have a better running attack this Saturday. With Cleaves at full back, this player often will be called upon to advance the oval and run or drive off tackles. Cleaves is one of the fastest men on the Tiger squad and the player the Maroons must watch at all times. He is generally considered a clever open field runner and it will take accurate and hard tackling to stop his advances.

Princeton's action in scheduling home and home contests with Chicago is a pleasing variation from precedent. Old Nassau has enhanced its prestige in the west thereby. We know of four local boys, planning to attend an eastern college, who have chosen Princeton as a direct result of the publicity attaching to these games. There must be many others.

So while as a matter of sectional pride we hope to see the Tigers routed Saturday, we extend to Princeton a most cordial welcome. As a reserve with our visitors, we shall not deplore the result, but feel it is a fitting reward for Princeton sportsmanship.

IN the WAKE of the NEWS

"BIG THREE" ISOLATION.

The Wake has not been one of those who severely panned Princeton, Yale, and Harvard for their policy of regarding football games with one another as the most important of their schedules and of subordinating other contests.

Personally, we believe in inter-collegiate athletics—think it helpful to our national life for young men of one section to meet those of another section in friendly test of prowess.

Rivalry of the Big Three, however, is traditional, extending over many years. It may be provincial, according to the viewpoint, but certainly they have the right to conduct their own affairs so long as they do not claim national honors (which they do not) as result of their contests.

PRINCETON READY; FINAL DRILL TODAY

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—The Princeton varsity football squad was given an afternoon of hard work today in an attempt to smooth out the offensive to be used against Chicago. This was not the final workout, however, as the coaches will call the team together at 11:30 tomorrow morning for final signal practice before boarding the special train.

The Tiger mentor has practically decided upon the team which he will start in the important contest. Johnnie Gorman is almost certain to start as quarter back, he indicated, and his next choices will be Wingate and Berger. Jack Cleaves will be full back, and Crum offensive half back. The defensive back will be played by either Caldwell or Emery.

Undecided on Center. Roper is undecided as to his center, but the choice is between Alfred and Griffin, with McMillan as a possibility. At ends, Tillson of last year's freshmen, who displayed excellent form in his first varsity appearance against Maryland Saturday, and Howard Gray will probably start, with Smith, Stout and Tyson as next choices. Stively, who was moved from end to guard last week, seems a fixture there, and will play along with Capt. Mel Dickenson. Baker and Herbert Treat will have the assignment at tackles.

Thirty-five varsity squad men, four teen coaches, the manager and two assistant managers will make the trip, as follows: Sitson, Seively, Dickenson, McMillan, Crum, Tillson, Newby, Gelineau, Alfred, Caldwell, Beattie, Smith, Treat, Griffin, Pagan, Gray, Emery, Snyder, Lawrence, Dwyer, Baker, Stout, Cleaves, Trout, Tyson, Berger, Stively, Gray, Dickenson, Caldwell, Roper, Fitzpatrick, Roy, Wilmer, Davis, Gordin, Gilroy, Dr. McLean, Strubbs, Lewis, and Trimble, coaches.

Woodfield, Blackard, and Twichell, managers.

PREPS FORGET HURDLING IS BARRED

FOOTBALL CAMPS

AT INDIANA. Loomington, Ind., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Indiana freshmen football camp today using Michigan Aggie plays. With several of the varsity players still on the hospital list on account of injuries received in the Wisconsin game, Head Coach Pat Harrison sent in his reserves in today's scrimmage. The freshmen used straight line plays and an aerial attack which brought their score. It is expected that two or three of the varsity players will be able to run signals tomorrow, but it is doubtful if Tackle Butler will be able to get back into scrimmage before the Notre Dame game.

AT PURDUE. Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Purdue football camp today before the game with Iowa at Iowa City Saturday. Today's practice was devoted to the running game, with Coach Phelan giving his men strenuous drill, using the freshman varsity men as the regular opponents in scrimmage. With the many cripples who must be depended upon to fight Purdue's battle the team will face heavy odds in the game Saturday.

AT BELLOIT. Beloit, Wis., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Coach Bell will take twenty-two men to Galesburg Friday night for Knox's homecoming battle. Several shifts in the squad this week are indicated by the coaches. Dawson, drop kick expert, is developing into a good player. McAllister, a developing line, was moved from right half to full back. Practice hours, until now shortened by late afternoon games and early sunset, have been extended to 6:30 by installing lights on the field.

AT YALE. New Haven, Conn., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Yale's last scrimmage before the West Point attack next Saturday consisted of the first clash between the regulars and the freshmen. The 1922 players on two occasions fooled the regulars with a brilliant passing work of the frosh who made use of the formations familiar to Easterners, but which are practically foreign to Western gridiron.

PATERSON BACK; LEADS PURPLE IN NEW PLAYS

Restored to pre-Maroon game fighting form by his week and a half of rest, Capt. Jimmy Paterson of Northwestern university yesterday led the varsity eleven into its first scrimmage of the week with the freshmen. Piloted by Bob Blythe at quarter, the regulars opened a new set of trick plays and pass formations, designed especially for Illinois.

The yearling goal line was crossed six times by the varsity. Chuck Palmer and Bob Wenecke were responsible for half the touchdowns, and Paterson and Blythe the rest. Blythe showed more skill at quarter in fifteen minutes yesterday than he did in the entire Gopher game. He will probably remain at the post until word is received from Arman Rembe, who was called to his home by the death of his mother.

Henry Penfield was forced to give up scrimmage because of his broken nose. Bill McElwain was on the field, but not permitted to enter the lineup.

ROCKNE TO TAKE BIG SQUAD SOUTH. Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Coach Rockne, Manager Guiney, and thirty-four Notre Dame football men will leave South Bend at 10 o'clock Thursday morning for Atlanta, where the party will arrive Friday at noon for Saturday's battle with Georgia Tech.

AGGIES READY FOR HOOSIERS. East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—The Michigan Aggies, with a lineup showing radical shifts from any previous varsity combination, today went through stiff scrimmage in their final heavy workout for the Indiana game at Bloomington Saturday.

NEBRASKA CALLED GREATEST ELEVEN IN GRIDIRON HISTORY. St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Nebraska this season has the greatest team in the history of American football, in the opinion of Steve O'Rourke, coach at St. Louis university, who saw the Cornhuskers romp over Missouri university last Saturday, 48 to 0.

"Nebraska is so good it could play Harvard Thursday, Yale Friday, and Centre Saturday, and win all three games," stated O'Rourke, who is considered an able coach. He played quarter back for Holy Cross in the days of Tom Sherrin and Ted Coy at Yale, and played against Dartmouth in 1917—the year it swamped Harvard, 22 to 0. O'Rourke said he never saw a team that could match Nebraska's overwhelming power and precision of play, and commented on the absence of frank plays in the Cornhuskers' work.

AT MINNESOTA. Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Two hours of intensive defensive work against Ohio's forward passing game made today's workout for the Minnesota first team. The coaches drilled the team constantly in how to stop and break up the short buckeye pass game behind the line. The varsity had much luck breaking the scrubs off balance in the aerial attack and the yardage, with modern body discomfited with the workout. There was little offensive work. Gosh, substitute for Cox, showed up at last.

ILLINOIS MAY FACE MICHIGAN WITHOUT CLARK

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—On the eve of the departure of the Illinois football team for Detroit, where it will journey before going to Ann Arbor Saturday, gloom, shrouds the campus. The probability that Rube Clark will be out of the game. Even if Clark should start, it is extremely doubtful if he could stand the gaff for any length of time. This means that George Dawson will have the pilot job sooner or later.

Supple spent another night working up a defense for Kipe and Steger. Tomorrow's practice will be brief and light, as the Orange and Blue warriors depart early. There will be plenty of time for light workouts in Detroit on Friday, however. Zuppke's squad will consist of:

Capt. Wilson, Bokumet, Blackard, Perell, and Fulk, ends; Angus, Oakes, Wagner, Arner, Bauer, and Merv, tackles; Emma, McMillan, McIlwain, Miller, guards; Green and Roberts, centers; Clark, Dawson, Cushman, and Durant, quarter backs; Haggarty, McIlwain, Robinson, Royal, Stout, and Schultz, backs; Woodward, Hill, and Yates, full backs.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Scrimmage work scheduled for today was called off, Coach Yost choosing instead to send the "varsity" through a fast signal drill. Yost is expecting that Illinois will present a strong defensive and has given the squad a number of new plays calculated to strengthen the Wolverine offense. Coaches Tad Wideman and Strummeier watched today's work closely and gave the men considerable individual coaching when necessary.

An effort to crowd in as much instruction as possible before the game Saturday. Yost has supplemented the afternoon drills with a long evening session, during which signals are reviewed and placed mapped out on the slate. Electric lights have also been strung up on Ferry field to permit practice after dusk if necessary.

BIG SQUAD OF 36 BUCKEYES LEAVE FOR MINNEAPOLIS. Columbus, O., Oct. 25.—[Special.]—A squad of thirty-six Ohio State players, the most ever taken on any conference journey, left at 7:45 this morning for the Minnesota game at Minneapolis Saturday. In the last workout before the clash, Coach Wiley sent the yardage, with modern body discomfited with the workout. There was little offensive work. Gosh, substitute for Cox, showed up at last.

Horse Abernethy, a miserly man, a young musician and the son of a famous pianist, had three hundred thousand dollars in his pocket when he died. His will was divided by his lawyer, half to go to his wife, Margaret West, and half to go to his daughter, Mary. Mary was determined to find the composition of operas, so he enlisted Roy Morton, and David Thwing, who had been a composer of operas, to help him. Mary Thwing, the pretty young woman, was employed in the neighborhood of the house where he lived. When the four men arrived at the house, they found the house empty. Mary Thwing, however, they can, ransack the house for the fortune. It is all a great search for the fortune, while Roy Morton is a miserly man.

But there came no suggestion as to that cause from the unconscious. He played it once again, without any hint of understanding, then ceased, wholly at a loss. It was another who had eluded him.

As the echoes died away Billy Walker rumbled a comment from his luxurious huddling in the depths of the chair.

"Sounds like money—money—gold, you know, all in stacks. Saxe whirled on the piano stool as he stared at his unmusical friend. "By heavens, Billy," he cried exactly. "That's what it is; it's they're piled up." He was a miser who had no soul for music, yet failed. He had no particle of the music was the true one. ART INSTITUTE BUYS STATE ST. CORNER, $240,000

BY AL CHASE.

Title was taken by the Art Institute of Chicago yesterday for the $240,000 lot at the northwest corner of State street and Jackson boulevard, which is part of the site of the old Hub clothing store building. The price was $240,000. Louis Seiberger, who was succeeded in the realty business by Ward T. Huston & Co., secured the property last August from Emma Cecilia Huston of Los Angeles, and held it in his name for the Art Institute until yesterday. The Otis estate has a long term lease on the property with annual rental of $12,000.

Boehm & Winterport report having sold business properties on Crawford avenue within the last thirty days aggregating $138,000, as follows: Northeast corner of Congress, S. Goldberg to Mary Edelstein, $50,000; southwest corner Congress, 135x50, N. Felten to H. A. Lee, $45,000; 415 South Crawford, 60x100, Morris Meyer to Herman Weller, $35,000. Part of Mr. Lee's purchase is vacant and will be improved at once with a business building.

Plans New Subdivisions.
Arthur Dunas has bought thirty-three lots between 73d and 74th streets and Jeffery avenue and a line 1/2 foot east of the Chicago title and trust company, for $60,000. He has deeded it to the Union Bank of Chicago in trust and will at once subdivide it. He intends to cut 73d place through his property and pave it at his own expense. Seventy-fourth will be paved by assessment.

Rowe & Rowe have been commissioned to draw plans for ten two flat buildings with English basements. Mr. Dunas intends to make the back yards of his property as attractive as the front, if possible, and will have his lawns paved, fenced, and lined with trees and shrubbery. There'll be eleven business lots on 73d. The residential lots will total twenty-four, with thirty foot frontages and three of fifty-three feet. Draper & Kramer were the brokers in Mr. Dunas' purchase.

Looking Far Ahead.
Samuel E. Zuker is planning far ahead. He has just bought the north-west corner of Clark and Oakdale, 17x2

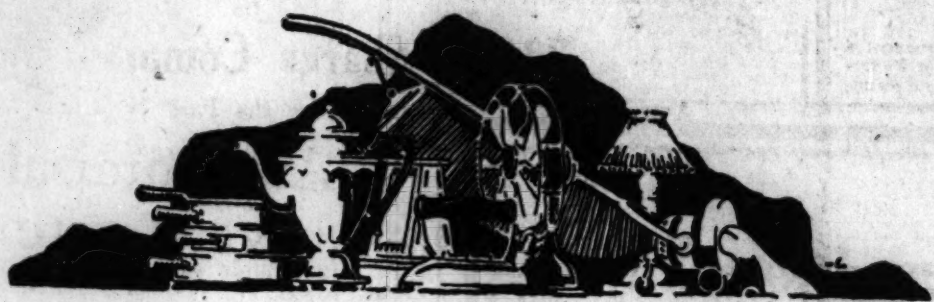

Building Permits

Twenty-two building permits, a total value of $791,400, were issued yesterday. Those being the following:
$446-36 N. Central Park av., three story brick, corner lot, Harry E. Mason, owner; Louis Blum, contractor, $225,000.
$603-59 Kenwood av., three story brick, corner lot, Harry E. Mason, owner; Louis Blum, contractor, $175,000.
$603-59 Irving Park blvd., two story brick store and flat, Charles Lamb, owner; Albert Rutenberg, architect; E. L. Ackerman, mason and stonemason, $55,000.

125, from George D. McLaughlin for $105,000, which gives him about two-thirds of the block. He says in the course of time if he is able to acquire the balance at reasonable prices, he may build a high class office building. Of course, it may be twenty years, he adds, but he believes in looking forward. E. M. Duval & Co. were brokers for Mr. Zuker. The forty-two apartments at the northeast corner of Bates and Glenwood, 107x175, were sold by Martin Groby to Bernard DeKoven for $217,000, subject to $150,000.
The T. E. Wells estate has sold to O. F. Behrmer the northwest corner of Princeton and 76th, improved with three stories and fourteen apartments, for $81,000. A Yuckman represented both parties.

Why concentrated effort in The Chicago Territory enriches electrical manufacturers

SOME electrical manufacturers are still spending their advertising appropriations in mediums which "cover the country," but the wise ones have quit trying to sell electric appliances in mediums that are read by kerosene lamps.

Analysis of the electrical market leads inevitably to the conclusion that for the development of immediate sales as well as for permanent, profitable business, no other zone can equal The Chicago Territory.

Chicago leads all other cities of the world in the number of wired homes. Illinois has more resident lighting customers than any other state in the country. Nearly one-fifth of the resident lighting customers of the country live in the five states of The Chicago Territory—Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin.

And one newspaper, The Chicago Tribune, reaches one family out of every five in this territory. The Tribune has, also, the largest city and suburban circulation of any Chicago newspaper. It reaches dealer and consumer alike, for 76 per cent of the electrical jobbers in The Chicago Territory (outside Chicago) and 70 per cent of the electrical retailers (outside Chicago) read The Tribune. The circulation exceeds 500,000 daily and 800,000 Sunday.

Here's an illustration of the value of that circulation:

"A short time ago the Eden Washer was advertised in The Sunday Tribune for $109.75, and within three hours after the paper was here a woman called up and said she wanted to buy one, and if I was able to furnish them at the same price she would buy it. I ordered ten at the special price and sold them along with five more ordered later. The Tribune advertisement was what started it and the advertising in it helped us here. Getting in quick caused us to make at least six of the sales."

America offers no other market with so great possibilities in the electrical appliance field, and the market has one great newspaper, The Chicago Tribune, which sways jobber, dealer, and consumer in the five states of The Chicago Territory.

Assistance

available for the manufacturer who advertises in The Tribune

A DECADE ago The Chicago Tribune announced the following policy toward national advertising:

"It is a waste of money to advertise a product distributed through the retail and jobbing trade—until that trade has been supplied with merchandise to take care of the consumer demand when created."

In order to live up to this, The Tribune has done everything possible to simplify the securing of distribution among Chicago retailers in advance of advertising.

The metropolis has been analyzed into 48 districts. The dealers in each of ten lines have been listed in each district—making 480 lists. Each list is on addressograph plates arranged in route order.

To keep these retailers appreciative of the importance of turnover, and to prove the value to them of national advertising, The Tribune has published and distributed free of charge each month for eight years a trade paper known as The Co-Operator. Edited entirely in the interests of the retailer without puffs for The Tribune or for Tribune advertisers, this publication has laid a splendid foundation for advertised merchandise.

The Tribune maintains a staff of service men who guide the manufacturer and his salesmen in covering the Chicago market. The service man assists in organizing the specialty sales crew and drills them on how to use the advertising campaign in order to sell the retailer. For instance, he warns them against talking about The Tribune's 800,000 total circulation, but rather about the exact circulation of 2,000 to 6,000 in the immediate neighborhood of the retailer being solicited. Elaborate circulation analyses have been made in order that the salesman may thus show each dealer just what his store will get out of the campaign.

Further, The Tribune service man installs a system of record keeping by which the cost and results of the sales campaign are always known right up to the minute.

Many old established firms have had salesmen in Chicago for years without thoroughly covering the city. Check-up on a particular product by The Business Survey of The Tribune has repeatedly shown amazingly spotty and inadequate distribution. Yet by analysis, system and equipment, The Tribune has made it possible for a manufacturer, absolutely new to Chicago, to secure thorough distribution for a new product in a few weeks.

This is, of course, only a fraction of the benefits that flow from Tribune advertising, but it is cited as an illustration of The Tribune's attitude toward the manufacturer's problems—The Tribune's determination to take the "blue sky" out of advertising and make it pay.

The Chicago Tribune has more than thirty trained men not only in advertising but also in merchandising—in the actual direction of sales campaigns in The Chicago Territory—men who know from repeated contact with jobbers and dealers in many lines what can be done, and how to do it.

One of these men will call on request to discuss the possibilities for developing the sale of your products in The Chicago Territory in 1922.

The Chicago Tribune

The World's Greatest Newspaper

A new book called "The W G N" has just been published. It deals particularly with The Tribune, but is in effect a handbook of newspaper administration. 304 pages—100 illustrations—how news is gathered—how spruce trees become newsprint—how the advertisements are handled—every phase of the making of The Tribune is described in detail—Editorial—Advertising—Circulation. "The W G N" is on sale at the Business Survey, 1711 Tribune Building, and at loop bookstores.

BULLETIN.

BY HENRY WALES.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.
Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]
PARIS, Oct. 26.—The fall of Facta government in Italy prob means the return of Former ruler Giolitti to power. Private diomatic advices from Rome revealed the cabinet crisis for several days. Sig. Giolitti conf with Deputy Prof. Benito M luti, chief of the Fascisti, to Rome. Sig. Orlando also called Giolitti into a long confer today.

ROME, Oct. 26.—[By the Assoc Press.]—Premier Facta and his ministry resigned this evening facing the hostile attitude of the Fascisti against it and the ordering of a general mobilization of forces throughout the country which declined to give up power.
The expectation in Rome tonight that King Victor Emmanuel would return to the capitol tomorrow for business with the political leaders for the formation of the new gov ernment.

Benito Mussolini, head of the Fascisti, has called together all mil litary leaders of that organization and has ordered all the mili tary units of the Fascisti to be ready. The 400,000 workers have joined the Fascisti organiza tion and are ordered to cooperate at an early moment with the military units.

This is interpreted here as pre paration for the assumption of power by the Fascisti.

Fascisti Ready for Force.
NAPLES, Oct. 26.—[By the As sociated Press.]—The Fascisti con gress, which has been in session for several days, adjourned today. All the business of the congress was ac complished—namely, that either the Fascisti would assume power legally by force, and that therefore the pro cess was not the time for discussion, but obedience.

During the concluding session
Mussolini, deputy for Rome, but a member of the Fascisti, outlined the foreign policy of the Fascisti, saying:
"Our foreign policy will be al ways friendly and the ally of Italy will be firm in order to obtain a just valuation of Italian interests greater respect for Italy's rights in the Mediterranean, where we are, and in the Adriatic, where we have."

March on Rome?
LONDON, Oct. 26.—A dispatch from the Times from Milan says the Fascisti are now in a position to precipitate a march on Rome.
The Fascisti now is center
d around a Fascisti march on Rome. The air is thick with rum ors. It is also reported, the dis patches, that there is serious agreement in the Fascisti ranks, arises from the fact that the Fascisti congress, which was to have its sessions in Naples today suddenly adjourned, leaving nothing any of the more im portant items on the agenda.

GIANT IN THREE YEARS.
The Fascisti, founded in April by Benito Mussolini, editor of the "Popolo d'Italia" of Milan, has the most powerful organization in the Italian nation. Its strength that for many months it has been able to govern the nation, and it has not been able to bring the nation that there are two governments in Italy the official and the other the Fascisti. One had to go, he said, and the other was the stronger.
The government that if it were parliament and order by November he would be in power.

Convention in Naples.
The beginning of Oct
Fascisti have been more in their demands that be called and that the
the most important in the cabinet. The convention of the Naples on Oct. 24, Sig.
Mussolini had agreed to ac cept the conditions for par ticipation in the govern ment. The the granting of the
the navy, navy,
